Purpose

The Nursing Bursary for Postgraduate Study supports newly graduated registered nurses within their first 24 months of practice to undertake postgraduate study by reducing financial barriers.

Value and Tenure

The value of the bursary is $500, and the tenure is one semester.

Typical Number on Offer

Multiple bursaries are available.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- a Registered Nurse (RN) with a current Annual Practising Certificate (APC)
- currently employed as a registered nurse in New Zealand
- enrolled or intending to enrol into course 168.733 Physiology & Pathophysiology

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on financial need and the benefit of the bursary to the recipient.

Selection Committee

Selection will be made on recommendation from the School of Nursing panel to the University Scholarships Selection Committee.

Conditions of the Bursary

The bursary can be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries or awards, so long as these permit co-tenure.

This bursary may only be awarded to an individual once.

Payment of the bursary is contingent on the recipient enrolling in 168.733 Physiology & Pathophysiology in semester which aligns with the scholarship tenure.
