Purpose
Massey University’s commitment to excellence in research and learning is publicly acknowledged and celebrated at its graduation ceremonies and through publication of its graduates on the Massey University website. Compliance with the principles of sound corporate governance ensures the integrity of the graduation processes.

Statute
The Council of Massey University is empowered through the Education Act 1989 to make awards. The Council confers degrees and awards diplomas and certificates at graduation ceremonies or ‘in Council’.

At a graduation ceremony, the Chancellor, Pro Chancellor, or nominee has the delegated authority of Council to confer degrees and award diplomas and certificates on those to be presented in person or listed as ‘in absentia’ in each Graduation Programme.

‘In Council’ graduations take place at Academic Board meetings, where the Academic Board, under the delegated authority of Council, confers degrees and awards diplomas and certificates to those so listed. Council itself also confers degrees and awards diplomas and certificates to those so listed as and when required.

The Massey University Council Graduation Statute, and its Procedures and Guidelines reflect the tenets of risk management regarding the integrity of the graduation processes, including generally accepted principles of good governance; uniformity of processes across all campuses responsible for the management of the graduation processes; accountability; and attestation processes confirming the identity and eligibility of those graduating.

Massey University graduation ceremonies follow traditional university graduation processes. These traditional processes take place within a ceremony which reflects a New Zealand and Massey University context.

Scope of the Massey University Council Graduation Statute, and its Procedures and Guidelines
The Massey University Council Graduation Statute, and its Procedures and Guidelines are applicable to all graduation ceremonies and ‘in Council’ graduations.

Graduations take place in New Zealand only. Participants taking part in Celebrations to Honour Graduates, including off-shore ceremonies, will have previously graduated.

The Massey University Council Graduation Statute, and its Procedures and Guidelines are also applicable to all participants and associated service providers involved in any particular graduation function or allied event.
