COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Centre for Public Health Research.................................................................1
Office of the Pro Vice Chancellor - Humanities & Social Sciences......................2
School of English & Media Studies....................................................................3
School of Global Studies......................................................................................9
School of Health Sciences..................................................................................16
School of History, Philosophy and Politics..........................................................21
School of Language Studies..............................................................................30
School of Maori Studies......................................................................................35
School of Psychology.........................................................................................41
School of Resource and Environmental Planning..............................................51
School of Social Policy and Social Work............................................................54
School of Sociology and Women’s Studies........................................................64
Centre for Public Health Research

1. Refereed Journal Paper

Office of the Pro Vice Chancellor - Humanities & Social Sciences

1. Refereed Journal Paper

School of English & Media Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

11. Performance

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

15. Extension Activities

16. Professional Practice in Arts & Design

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

18. Professional Consultancies

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Global Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

MacRae, G. (2000). Kapok terhadap politik: The culture of apoliticism in Ubud. School of Asian Studies, University of Auckland, May 23, University of Auckland, Auckland, NZ.

MacRae, G. (2000). With the real Undagi please stand up?: On the social location of Balinese architectural knowledge. Association of Social Anthropologists of Aotearoa/New Zealand 25th Annual Conference, September 3, Hamilton, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

16. Professional Practice in Arts & Design

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Health Sciences

1. Refereed Journal Paper

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Carryer, J. B. (2000). Leading, but silently. Business School and Faculty of Medical & Health Sciences, University of Auckland, August 3, University of Auckland, Auckland, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (2000). A strategic plan for nursing. Southern Cross Hospital, October 31, Auckland, NZ.

Finlayson, M., & Gower, S. (2000). Hospital restructuring: The impact on patients and nurses. Nursing 2000: Much of the same or more for the future?: Aotearoa New Zealand College of Nurses Conference, September 18, Christchurch, NZ.

Gilmour, J. (2000). Apocalyptic demography. Public Health Department, Wellington School of Medicine, August 4, Wellington School of Medicine, Wellington, NZ.

Gilmour, J. (2000). From grounded theory to Foucault. Wellington School of Medicine, March 22, Wellington, NZ.

Gilmour, J. (2000). Qualitative research. Te Ropu Rangahau Hauora Maori a Eru Pomare, July 3, Wellington School of Medicine, Wellington, NZ.

La Grow, S. J. (2000). Effective rehabilitation and back to work programmes: A case for individualisation, flexibility and timeliness. 2nd Annual Occupational Health & Safety Masterclass, October 26, Wellington, NZ.

La Grow, S. J. (2000). Tailoring services to meet individual needs. The Rehab Challenge: 2nd New Zealand Rehabilitation Association Conference, October 12, Auckland, NZ.

Lloyd, J. K. F., Budge, R. C., La Grow, S. J., & Stafford, K. J. (2000). Use of a focus group discussion to explore guide dog and user partnerships. A brighter vision for the future: 10th International Mobility Conference, August 8, Coventry, UK.
Lloyd, J. K. F., La Grow, S. J., Budge, R. C., & Stafford, K. J. (2000). Matching of the person who is blind or vision impaired with a guide dog. A brighter vision for the future: 10th International Mobility Conference, August 6, Coventry, UK.

Palmer, C. (2000). Hope breathing recovery into life. 26th Annual Conference of the Australian New Zealand College of Mental Health, September 5, Gold Coast, QLD.

Stephens, C., Budge, R. C., & Carryer, J. B. (2000). To have or to take: The discursive construction of attitudes to HRT in situated practice. Seventh New Zealand Health Psychology Conference, February 26, Okoroire, NZ.

Woods, M. (2000). Ethical issues in the current undergraduate education review. Department of Nursing and Midwifery, Victoria University, August 31, Victoria University, Wellington, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

Good, G. A. (2000). Damn I hate this disease and it’s not even mine! Diabetes Manawatu, and the Soroptomists Club, August 9, Palmerston North, NZ.

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of History, Philosophy and Politics

1. Refereed Journal Paper

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

10. Creative Works

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Ayson, R. F. (2000). New Zealand and global nuclear disarmament: Is the glass half-full or half-empty? Nuclear Proliferation and Conflict Escalation in South Asia: Implications for Global Arms Control and Regional Security Conference, March 25, Auckland University, Auckland, NZ.

Battye, J. A. K. (2000). What is science, and why has it been so successful? College of Sciences Seminar Series, Massey University, June 9, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Taylor, K. A. (2000). Never more than a curiosity value?: The revolutionary left and New Zealand political studies. New Zealand Political Studies Association Conference, June 29, University of Otago, Dunedin, NZ.

Taylor, K. A. (2000). The social basis of New Zealand communism. School of History, Philosophy and Politics Seminar Series, Massey University, October 5, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Tennant, M. (2000). Woman’s peculiar mission: Women’s benevolence in a colonial setting. Communities of Women Conference, June 30, Otago University, Dunedin, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

Salapata, G. (2000). (Presentation). Greek vase painting. 7th Form Schools Visit, October 19, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Salapata, G. (2000). (Presentation). Images of power in Roman art. 7th Form Schools Visit, October 27, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Language Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

10. Creative Works

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Cropp, G. M. (2000). Christine de Pizan: Pre-text and text. Interuniversity Subject Conference in Languages, July 2, Rotorua, NZ.

Cropp, G. M. (2000). Le Livre de Bocce de Consolacion: Translation as literature. Australian and New Zealand Association for Medieval and Early Modern Studies Conference, February 1, University of Sydney, Sydney, NSW.

Haddon, R. (2000). Colonizing East Asia: The trope of the prostituted body. School of Language Studies, Massey University, July 21, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Knight, P. (2000). Translation by numbers. School of Language Studies, Massey University, August 4, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

McCallum, J. (2000). The mediating function of speech. College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Massey University, July 27, Massey University, Wellington, NZ.

McCallum, J. (2000). Reconstruction and reformulation: Tasks that provide the optimal conditions for learning by speaking. CLESOL 2000: The Seventh National Conference on Community Languages and English to Speakers of Other Languages, September 25, Auckland, NZ.

Watts, J. (2000). Assessment and moderation using NZQA unit standards in ESOL. Wellington Association of Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages, June 8, Wellington, NZ.

White, C. J. (2000). The research-teaching nexus in tertiary distance education. Research in Distance Education Seminar, December 6, Deakin University, Geelong, VIC.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

18. Professional Consultancies

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Maori Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper

2. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

Cunningham, C. W. (2000). The participation of Māori in the monitoring of mental health services: The first steps. Palmerston North, NZ: Massey University, Te Pāmanawa Hauora, School of Maori Studies.

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

15. Extension Activities

16. Professional Practice in Arts and Design

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

18. Professional Consultancies

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Psychology

I. Refereed Journal Paper

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

Gregory, R. J. (2000). Internet as social doctor: A time of healing. New Zealand Family Tree, 32(1), 16-18

Gregory, R. J. (2000). Listening is important skill. The Stamp Wholesaler, 63(2), 8.

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Fletcher, R. B. (2000). Linear programming and its application to the assessment tools for teaching and learning. Asttle Seminar, University of Auckland, December 12, University of Auckland, Auckland, NZ.

Kazantzis, N., & Haarhoff, B. (2000). Recruiting participants into applied clinical research: A proposed agenda. Waitemata Health Cognitive Therapy Center, December 1, Massey University, Albany, NZ.

Pachana, N. A. (2000). Differential diagnoses in dementia and late-life depression. University of Utah, Department of Educational Psychology, February 9, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT.

Pachana, N. A. (2000). Vice-Chancellor’s Symposium on the Research-Teaching Nexus: Examples from psychology. Teaching and Development Unit, Massey University, May 2, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Paton, D. (2000). Risk perception, risk communication and preparedness for natural hazard effects. University of Auckland, School of Environmental and Marine Sciences, October 13, University of Auckland, Auckland, NZ.

Spicer, J. (2000). What should health psychologists do with the biopsychosocial model? Seventh New Zealand Health Psychology Conference, February 17, Okoroire, NZ.

Stephens, C., Budge, R. C., & Carryer, J. (2000). To have or to take: The discursive construction of attitudes to HRT in situated practice. Seventh New Zealand Health Psychology Conference, February 17, Okoroire, NZ.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Resource and Environmental Planning

1. Refereed Journal Paper

4. Chapter in a Book

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

5. Refereed Conference Paper

Bellingham, J., & Rosier, D. J. (2000). Benchmarking planning research and practice in universities. In D. J. Rosier & V. E. Forgie (Eds.), Proceedings of the 2000 Meeting of Australian and New Zealand Planning Schools (pp. 143-149), September 22-24, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ. Palmerston North, NZ: Massey University, School of Resource and Environmental Planning.

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

Dixon, J. E., Dupuis, A., Le Heron, R., Murphy, L., & Spoonley, P. (2000). Ambryno Place: Medium density housing in Auckland. Palmerston North, NZ: Massey University, School of Resource & Environmental Planning, and, School of Sociology & Women’s Studies.

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Bellingham, M., & Rosier, D. J. (2000). Benchmarking planning research and practice in universities. Australian & New Zealand Planning Schools, September 24, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

Rosier, D. J. (2000). (Presentation). Environmental management in New Zealand. Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups, August 5, Palmerston North, NZ.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

18. Professional Consultancies

Bellingham, M. (2000). Field course for Auckland University of Technology Distance Learning in Fiji. Auckland University of Technology, September 19.
1. Refereed Journal Paper

Sullivan, M. (2000). Does it say what we mean, do we mean what it says, do we know what we are saying?: Problematising the way disability is conceptualised, written and spoken about. New Zealand Journal of Disability Studies, (8), 36-46.

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Hay, K. (2000). Who cuts the deal?: Contracting out the provision of care. Australia New Zealand Third Sector Research Conference, December 5, Sydney, NSW.

Munford, R. (2000). The role and relevance of research for developing reflective social work practice. Department of Child, Youth and Family, Research Unit, November 15, Wellington, NZ.

Ruwhiu, L. A. (2000). The ways in which different aspects of our culture contribute to our wellbeing on the one hand and abuse on the other. Institute for Child Protection Studies, October 17, Linton, NZ.

Selby, R. (2000). Before we begin: Understanding ourselves and our participants. Women’s Private Writing/Writing Women’s History Conference, June 17, Portland, ME.

Shaw, R. (2000). Explaining MMP. National Council of Women, June 12, Palmerston North, NZ.

Shaw, R. (2000). Whither the state. Public Service Association Annual Conference of Health Delegates, January 27, Palmerston North, NZ.

Sullivan, M. (2000). Disabled people and politics of partnership in Aotearoa New Zealand. School of Social Policy and Social Work, Massey University, September 26, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

Shaw, R. (2000). (Submission). Why New Zealand needs 120 members of parliament. Parliamentary Select Committee on MMP, November 29, Wellington, NZ.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

Ruwhiu, L. A. (2000). The role and function of Maori social service workers in dealing with child abuse. Ngatihakunga Health Services, September 10, Masterton, NZ.

18. Professional Consultancies

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

Belgrave, M. P. (2000, November 3). Opportunity the order of the day [Interview by L. Willis]. North Shore Times Advertiser, 3.

Kiro, C. A. (2000). A clash between rhetoric and reality…: How economic policies have shaped the state of Mōri families today [Interview]. Kokiri Paetae, 15.

1. Refereed Journal Paper

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book, Journal or Conference Proceedings Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Conference Paper

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper

7. Non-refereed Conference Paper

8. Book Review

9. Other Research/Technical Publications

Dixon, J. E., Dupuis, A., Le Heron, R., Murphy, L., & Spoonley, P. (2000). Ambrosio Place: Medium density housing in Auckland. Palmerston North, NZ: Massey University, School of Resource & Environmental Planning, and, School of Sociology & Women’s Studies.

14. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Brooks, A. (2000). The uncertain configurations of the politics of location: Postcolonial feminist spaces. Women’s Studies Research Centre, University of Hong Kong, November 29, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong.

Murray, M. (2000). Tamed death to death as taboo?: Death, property and patriarchy in the transition from feudalism to capitalism. Humanities Research Centre Interdisciplinary Colloquium on Women and Property in Early Modern England, July 1, Australian National University, Canberra, ACT.

Patterson, L. (2000). Married women and pregnant girls: The pathologising of post war unmarried mothers. Communities of Women Conference, July 1, University of Otago, Dunedin, NZ.

15. Extension Activities

Dupuis, A. (2000). (Seminar). Teaching research or teaching content? The Vice-Chancellor’s Symposium on the Research-Teaching Nexus, June 23, Massey University, Auckland, NZ.

Patterson, L. (2000). (Presentation). Femme sole: Work in progress. College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Massey University, November 5, Massey University, Wellington, NZ.

17. Addresses to Community Organisations

Dupuis, A. (2000). The issue of medium density housing. University of the Third Age, Devonport, June 26, Auckland, NZ.

19. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

