STUDENT LIFE S

INFORMATION

To make life easy as you wander around campus on Open Day, information booths will be set up in the Pyramid and The Museum Building. Student helpers (Uniguides) and staff will also be available all over campus to answer questions, give directions, and assist on any matters.

PROFESSIONAL AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Centre for Professional and Continuing Education (PaCE) prides itself on offering innovative learning opportunities and services to those who want to explore, learn, grow and access the expertise of Massey University. Whether you are developing your career, preparing for university study or committed to lifelong learning, we have a range of high-quality courses to help you achieve your personal and professional learning goals. PaCE offers fully customised professional developm courses, English language and university preparation programmes, as well as Continuing Education opportunities. Visit us in The Pyramid.

NEW ZEALAND SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Te Kōkī, the New Zealand School of Music offers an outstanding range of possibilities for the study of music with courses in Composition, Music Studies, Classical and Jazz Performance as well as the only post-graduate degree in Music Therapy offered in New Zealand.

NZSM was launched in 2006 as a joint venture of Massey University and Victoria University Wellington combining the strengths of their Conservatorium of Music and School of Music respectively with more than 60 years' experience in the fields of performance, composition and historical research. NZSM's distinguished staff are professionally active, both in New Zealand and internationally, and they bring the benefits of such wide experience and expertise to their teaching.
