Purpose:

- That domesticated animals do not cause a nuisance or hazard on University property to any person, stock, poultry, domestic animal or protected flora and fauna,
- The potential benefits to well-being of animal companionship to an individual are considered.
- Consider potential disruption to the university’s operations,
- To consider allergies & phobias relating to animals,
- Consider aggressive behaviour of animals to an individual.
- The university’s duty of care under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

For the avoidance of doubt, access of domesticated animals on campus, (unless provided for by law) is to be avoided at any time.

In the event that an animal is brought on campus, it must be under direct control of the person responsible for the animal at all times. Voice command is not regarded as direct control.

Campus Security can require any person responsible for an uncontrolled animal to immediately remove it from the campus.

Scope:

All Massey University staff, students, and visitors to a Campus.

Procedure:

Permission is required for animals to be brought onto a Massey University Campus site. Permission maybe granted by a person’s Head of School/Department, or SLT member if required, or where an event with animals is planned, the event manager/organiser. Any decision to consider animals on campus must be accompanied with a hazard risk assessment that is signed off by a Campus Occupational Health and Safety Advisor before permission can be granted.

Permission for animals to be on campus is not required in the following situations.
i. Animals which are used for teaching and research with appropriate Massey University Animal Ethics approval.

ii. Animals which are used for teaching, farm, dairy and other activities related to the commercial enterprise of the university not covered by point (i)

iii. Disability Assistance Dogs

iv. Animals who are patients of the Veterinary Teaching Hospital, Companion Animal Hospital, Equine Veterinary Clinic, Farm Services Clinic, and Wildbase.
