1. Purpose:
The purpose of this policy is to ensure there is a consistent approach to refunds of fees paid by students or on behalf of students.

2. Definitions:

   Enrolment Period:
   Is defined by course (paper) start and end dates.

   Refund of Fees:
   The withdrawal of a charge from a student account – either through the process of reversing the transaction, such as enrolment in a paper, on which the original charge was predicated, or via the issuing of a credit note. A Refund of Fees will not necessarily result in the student’s account being in credit, i.e. a surplus of funds paid over fees charged.

   Refund of Funds:
   The payment of a credit balance of a student account, i.e. the surplus of funds paid over fees charged, to the student or other relevant party in accordance with this policy and related procedures.

   Student:
   The criteria for definition as an international or domestic student for fee charging purposes may be found in the Education Act 1989 and the University regulations.

3. Policy:

   3.1 Credit of fees

   A credit of Fees (tuition and non-tuition fees) shall be made to a student account where the eligibility criteria for credit are met. The eligibility criteria include:

   - Where a student formally withdraws from their paper(s) before 17% of the study period has elapsed) (as defined by the paper start and end dates) in accordance with the Enrolment Regulations on student withdrawal;
• Where a doctoral student withdraws from their programme before they have consumed the fees they have paid for their given year of enrolment.
• Where a student is granted a Fee Appeal in accordance with the Fee Appeal regulations which results in agreement to credit fees;
• Where the programme or course is cancelled by the University;
• Where the student’s enrolment is cancelled by the University;
• Where the criteria for incurring a charge or fee is not met;
• Where disputed charges are upheld in the student’s favour.
• Where the appeal failed to meet the standard fee appeal guidelines but due to extenuating circumstances has the approval grounds.

A credit of fees may be unavailable, in full, or partial – commensurate with how the fee is charged. Factors include:

• The fee category, e.g. whether the fee is compulsory or non-refundable;
• Where fees are pro-rated on another basis;
• Where fees are pro-rated and time has elapsed;
• Where partial criteria has been met
• Where the fee is charged by a partner university under an exchange programme, the conditions of that agreement will apply
• Where the fee is charged on behalf of a third party under agreement, any refund will be subject to the published terms of that party.

3.2 Refunds of funds

Refunds of Funds may be made where an account is in credit

Refund of funds may be in full or partial. Factors include:

• Where costs have been incurred by the University – in which case an approved fee may be charged;
• Where commissions have been paid to an International agent in good faith;
• Where fee charges may be pending.

Refunds of funds must be refunded safely and appropriately. Factors include:

• Prevention of money laundering and compliance with banking regulations;
• Payments made by third parties are returned to third parties where practicable;
• Payments made under contractual arrangements are refunded in accordance with the terms of the agreement;
• Compliance with Immigration NZ requirements;
• Supporting students to transfer institutions where appropriate.

3.3 Specific Conditions – International Students

International students must hold sufficient funds in their student account to cover the relevant tuition and related fees for the duration of their visa.

Refunds of credit balances will not be made to enrolled international students within their first academic year, or 120 credits, of study.

Tuition fee credits following the official university withdrawal date will not be granted to returning students who have not obtained the appropriate study visa. Renewing the appropriate study visa through Immigration New Zealand is the responsibility of the international student, and failure to renew the visa may not of itself warrant a tuition fee credit. New international students who do not hold a visa should not be enrolled. In the event that a student has enrolled and paid fees but does not obtain a visa then that student will be withdrawn from papers without financial or academic penalty (PWMR) and a credit will be granted.

Any accommodation bond payment made to Massey will be retained by Massey for the purpose of the accommodation. Accommodation bonds will not be refunded to students unless the terms of the tenancy have been met and the refund is approved by the Accommodation and Welfare Advisor, from the appropriate campus.

International students seeking to transfer to another New Zealand tertiary institution may have their refund of funds transferred to the institution concerned on evidence of an Offer of Place.

If additional funds have been paid to Massey by or on behalf of an International Student to cover their living expenses for Visa purposes, the student is entitled to receive a refund of those living expenses in full upon request. If the student is enrolled and based in New Zealand, the refund of living expenses will be made to their New Zealand bank account. The first years 120 credit tuition fees however must be retained if the student has not yet enrolled in 120 credits to ensure visa requirements are met.

International students who decide not to continue with their enrolment at Massey University, the refund will be made to the bank account from which the payment was made. They may be subject to an International Administration Fee.

Refund of surplus funds to International students will be made to a bank account in the student’s name in their home country unless the amount is inconsequential, the student is still enrolled as an internal student, or they provide evidence of having obtained a suitable visa/permit to remain in New Zealand long term (other than a visitor visa/permit).

3.4 Mode of Refund

Where tuition fees have been paid by student loan or scholarship and the University is party to such agreement (e.g. StudyLink, Home Government Scholarship) any credit of fees that results in a credit balance in the fee account, the refund of surplus funds held will be made directly to the third party involved, or in a manner directed by the specific agreement.

Where tuition fees have been invoiced to a third party the refund of fees will be made via credit note to the debtor concerned. Refund of a credit account balance will be made to the relevant debtor on request.

Where tuition fees have been paid by credit card, wherever possible the refund of a credit balance will be made to the credit card concerned.

Where tuition fees have been paid via a bank transfer, where practicable a refund of a credit balance will be made to the same bank account.

Students under the age of 18 will be required to show evidence of parental/guardian permission for withdrawal and/or refund of fees prior to a refund of funds being made to the student.

Other than the exceptions detailed above the refund of funds will be made to a New Zealand bank account in the name of the student who is registered for tuition.

3.5 Timing

All refunds of fees will be made as soon as possible after the withdrawal, change of circumstances, identification or error, or fee appeal resulting in a refund decision.
Refunds of funds will be made as soon as practicable upon request.

3.6 Extent of Liability

No liability will be accepted for the payment of interest or other consideration in respect to monies held, nor does Massey University acknowledge any liability for student losses arising from exchange rate movement, conversion charges, bank fees, or fees paid to recruitment agents.

4. Fee Protection

Massey University is governed by the Public Finance Act, the Education Act, and University Council regulations in regard to student fees. An individual fee account is maintained for each enrolled student. Any programme or course offered by the University and listed in its calendar may be cancelled by the University as a result of insufficient resources or student demand. The Vice Chancellor confirms that Massey University has the financial resources available to credit fees to students enrolled in any cancelled programme or course. If a programme or course is unable to proceed due to destruction or damage to buildings, plant and equipment or other tangible assets, fees may be refunded to the students affected, from insurance proceeds. In this case the fees refund would be covered by the University's Industrial Special Risks policy and be classified as a consequential loss. Under such conditions the University may be unable to meet normal timeframes for Fee refunds.

5. Authority

All credit of fees and refunds of funds will be made and actioned in accordance with approved delegations as notified from time to time.

Communication

All students will be informed of the conditions for refunds at the commencement of each enrolment period, including any timeframes which apply, and the required process to be followed and information to be supplied.

Third party payees will be communicated with in accordance with the terms of any agreement in place, and will be advised of any refunds due with regard to accounts that they have paid.

Where refunds are granted which impact on immigration conditions and the University is party to authenticating such immigration requirements, Immigration New Zealand may be advised.

Where refund requests do not appear commensurate with Anti-Money laundering requirements, the relevant banks may be advised.

Title:
Student Refund Procedures

Purpose:
The purpose of these procedures is to outline the specific factors to be taken into account when processing refunds of fees paid by students or on behalf of students.

Procedures:
Where a staff member is referred a student withdrawal or request for fee refund, they must incorporate the following factors into their assessment of funds due:

Fee categories for Refund
The quantum of Refund will depend on the following factors:

- the student type (e.g. International/ New Zealand Domestic)

Both New Zealand (domestic) and International students will normally qualify for a full refund of tuition fees paid if their withdrawal is prior to the date for Withdrawal without Financial Penalty or 17% of an enrolment period (as defined by the course start and end dates), International students may be charged the International Administration Fee if they withdraw from all their courses in an Academic Year.

New International students who meet the criteria above, but withdraw after Receipt of Payment and prior to completing 17% of their first enrolment period will be charged the International Administration Fee if they withdraw from all their courses in an Academic Year.

International Students who change their status to Domestic upon being awarded NZPR may apply to have the difference between the relevant international fee and domestic fee refunded, provided they qualified for such change (evidenced by the date of award in their passport) prior to the start of study date for the paper for which they are applying for the refund. Verified evidence of the award must be presented to Student Registry staff prior to the completion of the relevant enrolment period for which the refund is requested.

International student refunds are managed by Student Registry. This includes the refund of StudentSafe insurance based on the criteria outlined in the International Student Insurance – StudentSafe section below.

- the tuition fee type (International or Domestic)

Refunds for new International students paying domestic tuition fees, e.g. those paying Study Abroad Fees or international students with diplomatic status, will remain subject to the International Administration Fee where the student withdraws from all their courses in the Academic Year of their enrolment prior to completing 17% of their first enrolment period. Australian citizens who are studying in New Zealand are classified as domestic students and are therefore subject to the domestic student withdrawal fee.

Outbound exchange students are subject to Massey’s standard refund policy. Inbound Exchange students are subject to the agreement with the Exchange partner.

New Zealand students paying International Fees, such as NZ Permanent Residents studying overseas, will be eligible for a full refund of tuition fees should they meet the refund criteria.

- the fee category (e.g. compulsory non-tuition fee)

Some fees such as the International Administration Fee (if charged) are non-refundable, and the current status of all fees should be checked prior to a refund being made.

Other compulsory non-tuition fees are generally refundable if withdrawal is prior to the date of withdrawal without financial penalty, or 17% of the enrolment period, in any enrolment period, and non-refundable for withdrawals after this date. Some Compulsory non-tuition fees recalculate and become partially refundable if a change in enrolment reduces the course load.

- International Student Insurance – StudentSafe

International Student Insurance purchased through Massey University, is non-refundable for withdrawals prior to the date for withdrawal without financial penalty if a claim has been made. If no claim has been made and the student has travelled to New Zealand, then the refund will be pro-rated based on the time spent in New Zealand.

A withdrawal after the date of withdrawal without financial penalty will also render the insurance premium non-refundable.

- any obligations made to third parties on the student's behalf

Any commission paid to a Recruitment Agent in good faith by Massey University in relation to a student’s study year/semester/term, will be deducted from the amount of any refund payable to a student who applies to withdraw for that period of study.

Fee Appeal Process

Once the date for withdrawal without financial penalty for each enrolment period has passed, any refund requests will only be considered under the Fee Appeal process.

Where a programme does not proceed, or there is evidence that the programme was misrepresented by Massey or its agents, fees will be considered for waiver under the Fee Appeal process.

International students whose enrolment has been cancelled due to their student visas expiring following the date for withdrawal without financial penalty, and who fail to obtain the renewal of the appropriate student visa, will not be eligible for a fee refund and will not be considered under the Fee Appeal process.

New international students who do not hold a visa should not be enrolled. In the event that a student has enrolled and paid fees and does not obtain a visa then that student will be withdrawn from papers without financial or academic penalty (PWMR) and a refund will be granted.
Mode of Refund
Where tuition fees have been paid by student loan or scholarship and the University is party to such agreement (e.g. Studylink, Saudi Arabian Government Scholarship) the refund will be made directly to the third party involved, or in a manner directed by the specific agreement.

Where tuition fees have been invoiced to a third party the refund will be made via credit note to the debtor concerned.

Where tuition fees have been paid by credit card, wherever possible the refund will be made to the credit card concerned.

Students under the age of 18 will be required to show evidence of parental/guardian permission for withdrawal and/or refund prior to a refund being made to the student.

International student refunds will be made to a bank account in the student's name in their home country unless the amount is inconsequential, the student is still enrolled as an internal student, or they provide evidence of having obtained a suitable visa/permit to remain in New Zealand long term (other than a visitor visa/permit). If for exceptional circumstances the refund cannot be paid into the bank account from the home country, then the student will be asked to complete a statutory declaration to have the refund paid into a New Zealand bank account.

International students seeking to transfer to another New Zealand tertiary institution will have their refund transferred to the institution concerned on evidence of an Offer of Place and appropriate student visa/permit.

International students who have paid their fees from their home country, but have transferred more than what is required to cover their tuition, non-tuition, and living expenses, and apply to have the remaining balance refunded, will have that balance refunded back to their home country bank account (or under exceptional circumstances to a New Zealand bank account if a home country bank account is not feasible).

More detailed information about International student refunds are outlined on a checklist – Appendix one.

In all other cases the refund will be made to a New Zealand bank account in the name of the student who is registered for tuition.

Where a programme or course is unable to proceed due to destruction or damage to buildings, plant and equipment or other tangible assets, fees will be refunded to the students affected from insurance proceeds. In this case the fee refund would be covered by the University's Industrial Special Risks Insurance policy and be classified as a consequential loss. Under such conditions the University may be unable to meet normal timeframes for Fee refunds.

Definitions:
New Zealand Student:
• A New Zealand citizen, which includes citizens of the Cook Island, Niue and Tokelau
• A New Zealand permanent resident currently living in New Zealand
• An Australian citizen currently living in New Zealand
• An Australian permanent resident who has a returning resident’s visa and is currently living in New Zealand

International Student:
All other students. The following categories of International student may still be eligible to pay domestic fees (Domestic tuition type):
• Certain exchange students
• Certain dependants of diplomatic personnel
• A learner with refugee status who is required to undertake a prescribed course of study or training to satisfy residency requirements
• An international student enrolling in a recognised doctor of philosophy (PhD) programme in a New Zealand university from 19 April 2005 and supervised by a leading New Zealand university researcher.

DEFINITIONS:
Definitions used in these guidelines are defined by the glossary to the calendar.

PROCEDURES:
The Fee Appeal Guidelines guide staff in the consideration and processing of Fee Appeals.

The following principles will apply:
1. Applications must be consistent with the timeframes outlined in the Enrolment and Fee Appeal Regulations;
2. Applications will be considered on the merits of, the context of, and the evidence for, each situation;
3. Where appropriate a Credit of Fees is the preferred option for redress.

The diagram below outlines the options available to students:
Consistency with Enrolment and Fee Appeal Regulation Timeframes
Check that the student has withdrawn from the course(s) between the Dates for Withdrawal without Financial Penalty and the Final Examination, or end-date for the paper if no examination. The Enrolment Regulations specify the Dates for Withdrawal without Financial Penalty and the Dates for Withdrawal without Academic Penalty. These may change from time to time and staff are advised to check these regulations periodically to ensure activities are undertaken in accordance with approved timeframes.

If no withdrawal has occurred, the student should be referred to the Academic Standing process so an appeal can be made via this route. Should the Academic Standing Hearings Committee refer a student appeal to the Fee Appeal process, the requirement to comply with withdrawal timeframes may be waived.

Exceptional Personal Circumstances

Fee Appeals are considered when Exceptional Personal Circumstances prevent the student from completing their study. A check must be made that the student has not already applied for and received a concession, an Aegrotat or Impaired Performance, or a Fee Appeal, on the same grounds.

Situational Merit, Context, and Evidence
There are three factors to consider:
1. Student Enrolment History
   It is important that Fee Appeals are not used to avoid the justified application of an academic penalty or an academic progress restriction. If a student submits a Fee Appeal and there is any evidence of the following, consultation should take place with the Director of Teaching and Learning for the relevant College, or nominee, and the Student Success and Engagement Coordinator:
   - Repeated Fee Appeal(s)
   - Repeated Enrolment and Withdrawal
   - Previous Exclusion status
   - Academic Standing is ‘At Risk’

   This will ensure that a multiple applications/appeals are not submitted on the same grounds and if so, that the students application for consideration is referred to the most appropriate route, i.e. AEG/IP, Study extension, Academic Standing/Exclusion Appeal, or Fee Appeal, for consideration.

2. Situation Experienced by Student
   The following are some common situations identified by applicants, the evidence that may be sought to support these, and the options for outcomes:
