Massey University has agreed to observe and be bound by The Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 (including Amendments 2019) “The Code” published by the New Zealand Ministry of Education.

For more information, please visit NZQA website: nzqa.govt.nz

WHAT IS THE CODE?
The Code is a document that provides a framework for service delivery to international students by educational providers and their agents. The Code sets out the minimum standards of advice and care that are expected of educational providers with respect to international students. The Code applies to pastoral care and provision of information only, and not to academic standards.

BREACHES OF THE CODE
Students, or parents of students, who feel that an area of The Code has been breached should document the breach of The Code in writing to the Executive Director, Student Experience, Student Services, Massey University, who will take all steps necessary to ensure that the grievance is settled.

WHAT CAN YOU DO IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT?
If you have a complaint about Massey University’s compliance with the Code of Practice, you should try and resolve it by using the internal provider process in the first instance.

If your complaint is not resolved, you can take your complaint to iStudent Complaints. Visit https://www.istudent.org.nz/iStudent Complaints is the appointed operator of the International Student Contract Dispute Resolution Scheme (DRS), which was set up to resolve financial and contractual disputes.

Code signatories are required to comply with the International Student Contract Dispute Resolution Scheme Rules.

For more information, please visit NZQA website: nzqa.govt.nz
Massey University’s Student Grievance Procedures are for all domestic and international students and cover programmes including not-for-credit, undergraduate and postgraduate programmes and related services. They are designed to ensure students receive a quality education and that relations between staff and students are equitable. The Procedures can be accessed from the University’s Policy Guide at policyguide.massey.ac.nz.

A Grievance means any grievance, which a student (whether or not that person has any other role within the university) has against the University and/or a staff member because of a claim that he/she has sustained academic disadvantage. This includes claims which are sometimes referred to as Student Complaints.

Such grievances may include but are not confined to:

- The unfair assessment of course work not otherwise governed by University assessment and examination regulations.
- An unfair refusal or failure of the staff member to make him/herself available to assist a student with difficulties regarding his/her course work.
- Unreasonable delays in the assessment of course work.
- Inadequate course materials.
- Inadequate teaching.
- Deficient performance of associated administrative services.

A grievance should be brought to the attention of the University within one year of the occurrence or circumstances to which the grievance refers (Note that assessments (including major tests) and examination scripts not routinely returned to students should be retained by academic departments for a period of 12 months).

Thereafter a grievance may be considered only with the consent of the Provost. In deciding whether a grievance will be considered pursuant to Clause 9 of this Policy, the Provost will consider:

1. The seriousness of the alleged grievance;
2. The availability of relevant information including witnesses and documents;
3. The prejudice to any other parties; and
4. Any reasons for the delay in bringing the grievance to the attention of the University.

Procedures

Step 1
The student(s) and/or their representative approaches the staff member concerned. If the approach is in writing the staff member should acknowledge the receipt of the complaint within 7 days. (Mediation preferred forum for resolution.) Students may approach their Students’ Association representative for support, advice and advocacy.

†→ University Disputes Advisor for referral to a Mediator agreed upon by the Parties.

Step 2
If no resolution, or Step 1 is inappropriate, complainant approaches Head of Department/School/Institute/Section or, where the Head is the respondent or there is no settlement of the Grievance, the Pro Vice-Chancellor of the College. (Mediation preferred forum for resolution.)

†→ University Disputes Advisor

Step 3
If no resolution, complainant approaches Provost or their nominee who may, after consultation with the University Disputes Advisor, initiate the convening of the University Grievance Committee.

Step 4
University Grievance Committee decision, which is final and binding.

EXAMINATIONS AND PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism

Massey University defines plagiarism as presenting as one’s own work the work of another, including the submitting, copying or paraphrasing of another’s work without acknowledging it as another person’s work through full and accurate referencing. Plagiarism applies to material so presented through written, spoken, electronic, broadcasting, visual, performance or other medium.

In the context of an assignment, plagiarism occurs when information from another source is used without being credited correctly. This source can be a ghost writer, book, a journal article, an image, or a website: anything that was written, designed, or created by someone else.

THERE ARE SEVERAL COMMON MISTAKES THAT CAN LEAD TO PLAGIARISM:

• Copying a series of words without telling the reader where those words came from;
• Copying a series of words without putting them inside quotation marks;
• Paraphrasing (rephrasing) another source, but only changing a few words;
• Hiring a ghost writer to produce a piece of work for you to submit as your own;
• Using the facts or ideas from another source without telling the reader where they came from;
• Copying images, in whole or part, without including captions or telling the reader where they came from.

THERE CAN BE SIGNIFICANT ACADEMIC PENALTIES FOR PLAGIARISING IN AN ASSIGNMENT.

All work is put through turnitin for checking and will be noticed. Visit https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/staffroom/teaching-and-learning/staff-guide-to-stream/how-to-use/guides/assignment/turnitin.cfm

PLAGIARISM ANXIETY

Many new students worry about accidentally plagiarising. This is perfectly natural! The rules of referencing are complex and intimidating at first. Academic study involves a lot of reading, and it can be difficult to keep track of the sources of ideas. If you have any doubts, ask your lecturer or tutor.
Payment of fees can be done via the Student Portal or at Campus Information Services. Acceptable payment methods include cheque, credit card, EFTPOS card, AliPay and WeChat Pay (cash payments are limited/not accepted). Once you have received your Confirmation of Enrolment you will be issued with an invoice which will detail when your fees are due.

NOTE: International students will need to pay fees in order to be issued a Receipt of Payment which is required for immigration purposes. The Receipt of Payment will be issued once your payment clears. Never agree for someone else to pay your fees on your behalf and vice versa.

If you are unable to attend an exam due to illness or injury, or if you believe that your performance in an exam or test has been seriously impaired because of illness, injury, or something serious that happened just before the exam, you may make an application for Aegrotat consideration.

AEGROTT AND IMPAIRED PERFORMANCE – WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

Aegrotat is a university term that is used when a student is unable to attend an examination, compulsory component or assessment activity occurring at a fixed time and place due to illness, injury, bereavement or other critical circumstances.

Impaired Performance is used when a student believes that their performance in, or preparation for, any examination or assessment activity has been seriously impaired due to illness, injury, bereavement or other critical personal circumstances.

Critical personal circumstances are circumstances that have a profound effect on your ‘normal’ functioning. The effect will usually be in terms of your ability to concentrate, think clearly or put aside strong emotion for the duration of the assessment or a significant proportion of the study period. A more comprehensive definition, including examples, can be found in the Glossary of the University Calendar, available at https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/learning/exams/before-your-exams/aegrotat-impaired-performance/aegrotat-impaired-performance_home.cfm.

Supporting documentation such as medical certificates must be in English, or be accompanied by an official translation in English. More information on the University’s Aegrotat/Impaired Performance policy and procedure is available online https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/learning/exams/before-your-exams/aegrotat-impaired-performance/aegrotat-impaired-performance_home.cfm.

WHEN TO APPLY?

Applications for Aegrotat and Impaired performance have to be submitted as soon as possible after the assessment event. The University must receive applications within 14 days of the assessment. You should always attempt the assessment, and then apply for Impaired Performance. If exceptional circumstances prevent you from attending an examination, assessment or other compulsory component of the course you can apply for an Aegrotat consideration.

You should note that Aegrotat or Impaired Performance consideration is only given when serious and exceptional circumstances apply at, or around, the time of your assessment event(s) - if unsure discuss with Massey staff (ISS, NZS, CIS, H&C). Ongoing problems, conditions or situations do not provide support for an application. Circumstances of your own making, such as sleeping through an exam, or being exhausted because you studied all night prior to an exam, are not grounds for an application.

TO APPLY

1. Go to your Homepage → Exceptional Circumstances → Apply for aegrotat, impaired performance, exam script return or remark → Create New application
2. Click on the link that will take you to the webpage with the relevant application form and information.
3. Download the application form and follow the instructions on the webpage for completion of the form
4. Back on the homepage site for applying for aegrotat or impaired performance, complete the Application type and Course information and upload the relevant forms and supporting documentation.

The University must receive the application within 14 days of the assessment. Do not send in an application for an Aegrotat/Impaired Performance consideration after you have received your examination results, as it is unlikely to be considered.

Academic Standing

Academic Standing is a system designed to assist you to understand how you are performing in your studies. Massey University has high expectations and wants students to pass 100% of their courses. Massey University identifies and acknowledges and wants to help you to perform at your best.

Your Academic Standing is calculated after each semester. There are three types of Academic Standing you can receive:

- University Standing:
  this standing is calculated based on the number of credits you have passed and your Grade Point Average (GPA). Your University standing may affect the number of courses you are allowed to enrol in.

- Qualification Standing:
  A few qualifications have specific student progression regulations that you need to meet. If you fail to meet these requirements, you will receive a Qualification Standing of Excluded. This only applies to a small number of qualifications, but it is important to know if it applies to yours.

- Course Standing:
  if you fail a course twice, you will receive a Course Standing of Excluded and will not be able to re-enrol in that course for 12 months. This can apply to any course, from any enrolment period.

If your academic standing is calculated as “Excelling” or “Good”, this means Massey University is happy with your progress (and you should be too!). However, if your standing is calculated as “Academic Management” or “Academic Risk”, this means that the University may need to take steps such as limiting the number of courses you can enrol in, so that you have the best opportunity to succeed in your studies with us.

For more information about Massey University’s academic policies, please see the University calendar or visit https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/about-massey/calendar/calendar_home.cfm

2. Failure to comply with the principles of Academic Integrity may be considered to be Academic Misconduct.
3. Examples of Academic Misconduct include but are not limited to:

Students are required to complete assessment tasks individually and submit individual work unless the Course Guide advises that assessments are group assessments.
   (d) Contract plagiarism: Submitting material obtained from essay depositories (paper mills) or from another person. Submitting an assignment where all or part has been purchased from a third party service. The offering or advertising by students for students to engage in fraudulent activities.

5. Academic penalties include but are not limited to:
   (a) capped mark for an assessment component of a course;
   (b) remedial advice to be sought from a University Learning Consultant;
   (c) requirement to attend an appropriate workshop or other type of learning activity, either online or face-to-face;
   (d) repeat or resubmission of assessment or part thereof, and re-presentation for marking;
   (e) repeat assessment, or part thereof, and present for marking with capped mark;

   (g) zero marks for the piece of assessment;
   (h) fail grade for the course;

   (j) exclusion from the University.

6. The University may rescind a qualification already awarded to a student or former student, where Academic Misconduct of a serious nature is revealed post-graduation.

7. Failure of a student to participate in a remedial activity required by the University under these regulations may result in an escalation of penalties.

8. A record of a finding of Academic Misconduct may be maintained on the University’s Academic Misconduct Register.

9. Notwithstanding Regulations 1 to 8, Academic Misconduct may also be addressed through the Student Disciplinary Procedures or other relevant disciplinary processes, including recourse to the civil and/or criminal justice systems.

10. Appeals may be made by students in accordance with the process described in the Student Disciplinary Regulations.
Additional Terms and Conditions for International Students

Tuition fees/financial support

Tuition fees are subject to annual adjustment by the University Council and students agree to pay the tuition fees as set each year.

There is no financial assistance available from the University and it is students’ responsibility to ensure that they have sufficient funds available to meet all expenses before commencing a programme of study.

One academic year (February to November) is generally equivalent to 120 credits of full time study.

Some programmes require more than 120 credits of full time study to be completed in a year. This will also increase the tuition fee for that year of study.

Tuition fees do not include accommodation, living expenses, textbooks, field trips, other course related or incidental expenses.

Non-tuition fees

Non-tuition fees are calculated on an academic year not by semester. Where a student’s study spans two academic years, e.g., commencing in Semester Two and continuing through Semester One of the following year, the student will be liable for the annual non-tuition fees in each academic year.

Non-tuition fees include the Enrolment Fee, Student Services Levy, campus charges and Building Levy and are subject to annual adjustment.

Payment of fees

The student must pay tuition fees and other Massey University related fees to Massey University directly and not to any recruitment agent or other party, unless instructed by Massey University. This is part of Massey University’s fee protection policy.

There may be a bank fee charged by Massey University’s bank which is payable by the Student.

Refund Policy

Refund of tuition fees shall be made to students who withdraw in the manner required from their course(s) before 10% of the study period has elapsed as defined by the course start and end dates (see Enrolment Regulations in the University Calendar). Students who withdraw from all of their study at Massey University within the time and in the manner required to obtain a tuition fees refund must pay a withdrawal fee.

Commission paid by Massey University to agents for international students will also be deducted from any refund in respect of the courses withdrawn from.

When Massey University receives written notice from an international student that he or she has attained permanent residence in New Zealand, then, for any course which has not been commenced (defined by the course start date) at the date of receipt of the notice, Massey University will refund the student the difference between tuition fees received and the domestic tuition fees for the courses concerned. Massey University will require evidence of the change of status. There will be no refund for courses that have commenced.

Refunds due for overpayment of fees or withdrawal with a refund are made as soon as possible once enrolments and financial support provisions have been established for a particular study period. In any case, where a specific request is made for a refund that has been approved, such refund will be made within 28 days. If the refund cannot be made a written statement shall be provided to the student as to why the refund cannot be made, together with a date by which the refund shall be made.

Students under 18 years of age must provide evidence satisfactory to Massey University of parental approval prior to withdrawal or refund being granted.

In all cases, Immigration New Zealand will be advised that the student has withdrawn.
Compensation
Massey University will not compensate the student if Massey University cancels and/or postpones courses and/or qualifications whether or not the student has commenced study. After the student has accepted the Offer of a Place, and even after Massey University has issued a written Confirmation of Enrolment, Massey University may still cancel and/or postpone courses and/or qualifications offered from a Programme of Study and/or change the content of any course/qualification the student has enrolled in. If Massey University cancels a qualification and/or course that the student is enrolled in and which the student has not undertaken or if Massey University postpones the start date of any qualification and/or course and a new start date does not suit the student, a refund of fees will be paid for the courses which have not been undertaken and were enrolled in at the time of the cancellation. Massey University may cancel the student’s enrolment under the Education Act as permitted by law.

Insurance
International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. The Studentsafe-University Insurance fee quoted in the Fees Details may be refundable only when an alternative policy is presented and approved by Massey University. A full refund will be given if Studentsafe Insurance has been charged when the student has not travelled to New Zealand and has not made a claim. Insurance premiums will not be refunded if a claim has been made or if an alternative policy is presented and approved by Massey University part way through a Semester. If no claim has been made, only a proportion of the insurance will be refunded as insurance cover for the travel period, time spent in New Zealand, and the return trip home needs to be retained. Under all circumstances, no refunds will be made following the insurance year close off, normally January preceding the enrolment year. Failure to disclose any known medical conditions to your insurer may invalidate your insurance policy. It is a condition of enrolment for international students that they obtain and maintain sufficient insurance for the duration of your enrolment.

Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016
Massey University is signatory to and bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice, a copy of which is available at http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/providers-partners/education-code-of-practice/ or, upon request from Massey. Academic Advisor
Your new best friend when it comes to planning your study. You can book (free) appointments via the Contact Centre or the Campus Information Services or MyHub.

Co-requisite
Some courses require you to be enrolled in another specific course, known as a co-requisite, at the same time. You can’t take the one without the other.

Contact workshop
Students studying via distance or block mode will meet with their lecturer and other students at an assigned date and time to complete learning activities.

Course
Previously known as ‘paper’. The first three numbers of the course code (for example 150.214) give the subject area. The next number gives the level of difficulty (in this example level 2, known as 200-level).

Credits
Each course has a credit value, most commonly 15. Most bachelor’s programmes require you to complete 360 credits (usually 24 courses).

Elective course
Most programmes have core courses (compulsory) and elective courses where you get to choose from a range of courses.

Level
Most undergraduate degrees consist of 100, 200 and 300 level courses, each level being progressively harder. You must pass at least 45 credits at each level before being allowed to take courses at the next level. Not all 100 level courses have to be taken in your first year.

Major
The main subject area of your degree. Most degrees require you to complete 120 – 135 credits (8-9 courses) in your major subject. It may be possible to fit two majors (double major) into your degree.

Minor
The same as a major but requiring less credits (usually 60-75 credits = 4-5 courses). It can be in a subject belonging to another degree. It may be possible to have two minors.

Paper
This is the old name for course.

Pre-requisite
To be eligible to take some courses (for example, 230.210) you must first pass specific courses known as pre-requisites (for example 230.110). In other words, you can’t do 230.210 until you have passed 230.110.

Qualification
Is as a programme of study, for example Bachelor of Science, Diploma in Arts.

Fixed Term Tenancies

Be careful! A lot of tenants end up with court cases because of problems with their fixed term tenancy agreements.

In New Zealand, a signed rental / tenancy agreement is a commitment by law and cannot be broken. Please think very carefully and discuss with MUSA Advocacy before you sign any fixed term rental agreement.

WHAT IS A FIXED TERM TENANCY AGREEMENT?

There are two main types of tenancy agreements for rental accommodation.

1. Indefinite or periodic agreements: The tenancy agreement does NOT have an END DATE. It does not say when the agreement will finish. In this situation, the tenancy is ended by:
   a) The tenant giving 21 days’ notice that they are leaving (this is advising the landlord that you are leaving 21 days BEFORE the day you leave); or
   b) The landlord giving 90 days’ notice that the property must be vacated (the landlord must tell you the date when you must leave the house at least 90 days in advance).

2. Fixed term tenancy agreement: In this situation the agreement signed states very clearly the date when the tenancy will end. For example: “this tenancy is for a fixed term from 1st February 2018 to 1st February 2019”. Be careful because the words fixed term may not be written in the agreement. The important thing is that it says when the tenancy will finish. Neither the tenant (you) nor the landlord can end a fixed term tenancy agreement without giving notice.

Fixed term tenancies are very common in New Zealand, and houses are often in short supply. Lots of houses you look at may come with a fixed term tenancy. Don’t sign a fixed term tenancy if it doesn’t suit you circumstances.

If you like the house, but you do not want to sign a fixed term tenancy agreement, then try to negotiate with the landlord (in these cases having good references from previous landlords would help). A spoken agreement from the landlord is NOT enough. If the landlord is ready to agree to a periodic tenancy agreement, then make sure the current agreement is changed to periodic or indefinite in writing.

Don’t rush into a decision – lots of people sign fixed term contracts and regret it later.

Think carefully, read all the small print and get advice before signing a fixed tenancy agreement.
Be Sun SMART

New Zealand has one of the highest rates of skin cancer in the world, so you should monitor UV exposure closely. UV exposure is greatest between 10am and 4pm and in the months of September to April – so try to minimize skin exposure during these times.

1. Always use SPF30+ sunscreen. Apply at least 20 minutes before you go outdoors and reapply regularly.
2. Wear a wide brim hat or cap with flaps.
3. Wear close fitting, wrap around style sunglasses that have a sun protection rating.
4. Move into the shade of an umbrella or leafy tree.
5. Plan your activities later in the day when the sun’s UV levels aren’t that high.
6. Wear a long sleeve shirt. Fabrics with darker colours or a tighter weave will give you better protection.

Outdoors Safety Code

1. PLAN YOUR TRIP
   Seek local knowledge and plan the route you will take and the amount of time you can reasonably expect it to take.
2. TELL SOMEONE
   Tell someone your plans and leave a date for when to raise the alarm if you haven’t returned.
3. BE AWARE OF THE WEATHER
   New Zealand’s weather can be highly unpredictable. Check the forecast and expect weather changes.
4. KNOW YOUR LIMITS
   Challenge yourself within your physical limits and experience.
5. TAKE SUFFICIENT SUPPLIES
   Make sure you have enough food, equipment, clothing and emergency rations for the worst-case scenario. Take an appropriate means of communication.

Water Safety Code

1. BE PREPARED
   Learn to swim and survive and set rules for safe play in the water.
   Always use safe and correct equipment. Know the weather and water conditions before you get in.
2. WATCH OUT FOR YOURSELF AND OTHERS
   Always pay close attention to children you are supervising in or near water. Swim with others and in areas where lifeguards are present.
3. BE AWARE OF THE DANGERS
   Enter shallow and unknown water feet first and obey all safety signs and warning flags. Do not enter the water after drinking alcohol.
4. KNOW YOUR LIMITS
   Challenge yourself within your physical limits and experience. Learn safe ways of rescuing others without putting yourself in danger.
The Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 controls the sale and supply of alcohol on or from licensed premises like pubs, bars, restaurants, supermarkets and bottle-stores. It contains some new rules you need to know about.

18 OR OVER
If you are 18 or over, you can buy alcohol and enter licensed premises in New Zealand as long as you can show photo ID as proof of your age. Acceptable forms of ID are a NZ or overseas passport, a NZ photo driver’s licence or a HANZ 18+ card.

UNDER 18
If you are under 18 you cannot legally buy or be supplied with alcohol, with two exceptions:

- If it is bought for you by your parent or legal guardian (parent or legal guardian does NOT include any other family members like aunts, uncles, older brothers or sisters, older boyfriends or girlfriends, older husbands or wives, coaches or anyone else acting temporarily in the place of a parent).
- If it is supplied to you at a private function like a wedding.

IF YOU BREAK THE LAW
- The rules are strict and there are stiff penalties for breaking the law for both you and the person who supplies you with the alcohol.
- If you are under 18 and buy alcohol, or are illegally in a licensed premise, you could have to pay a NZ$200 infringement fee, which is like a traffic ticket. If the police charge you and you go to court, you can be fined up to NZ$2,000.
- If you are found in possession of, or drinking alcohol in a public place (without a parent or legal guardian), you could be charged a NZ$200 infringement fee or fined up to NZ$300.
- If someone buys alcohol for you, they could be fined up to NZ$2,000.
- If a bar manager or licensee sells or supplies alcohol to you, they could be fined up to NZ$10,000 or have their licence suspended or both.
The term “culture shock” refers to the reactions of people who experience cultural differences when they visit or move to another country. These reactions usually include feelings of surprise, uncertainty, confusion, frustration, loneliness, and lack of control.

Most international students suffer from culture shock when they arrive in their host country. They are exposed to new and unfamiliar situations, and must interact with people who speak a different language and have different customs, values and attitudes.

It is important for international students to realise that the experience of culture shock is perfectly normal, and that culture shock does diminish with the length of stay.

According to research, many international students go through four stages in their cultural adjustment:

1. THE “HONEYMOON” STAGE
   Students feel very positive, optimistic, and curious about their new environment.

2. THE “SHOCKED” STAGE
   Students struggle a lot, and may have negative, even hostile, attitudes towards their host country. They may suffer from homesickness at this stage.

3. THE “RECOVERY” STAGE
   Students have increased language knowledge and ability to get around in the new culture.

4. THE “APPRECIATION” STAGE
   Students have adjusted well to the host culture and now feel comfortable with it. They are accepting of differences between their home and host cultures.
EARTHQUAKE ADVICE

GET READY GET THRU

WHEN THE GROUND BEGINS TO SHAKE

DROP down onto your hands and knees (before the earthquake knocks you down). This position protects you from falling but allows you to still move if necessary.

COVER your head and neck (and your entire body if possible) under a sturdy table. If there is no shelter nearby, get down near an interior wall (or next to low-lying furniture that won’t fall on you), and cover your head and neck with your arms and hands.

HOLD on to your shelter (or your position to protect your head and neck) until the shaking stops. Be prepared to move with your shelter if the shaking shifts it around.

Managing Your Finances

- Never agree to lend to or borrow money from others without a written agreement and repayment plan.
- Never agree or ask for others to pay Massey’s fees via credit card.
- Do not carry more than $200 cash. It is safer to use an EFTPOS card for daily spending.
- Do not share your pin number or card details, and do not write it down where it might be found.
- Contact your bank as soon as possible if you lose your card.
- Be aware that EFTPOS cards, debit cards, ATM and internet transactions have a daily limit.
- For large payments, the internet limit can be raised by contacting the bank. The bank can issue a secure Bank Cheque for a fee.
- Do not lend large amounts of money, even to friends.
- It is illegal to place borrowed money in a bank account for the purpose of gaining a visa.
- Your bank will be happy to advise you on managing your accounts.
- Speak to International Student Care team or Student Association before financial problems get too big.

Managing money is not easy for many people. It’s really important to start thinking about your finances before it becomes an issue. The people below will be able to meet you in a range of situations and are here to help.

The Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 requires that all international students have appropriate medical and travel insurance for the duration of their study visa or until they depart New Zealand, whichever comes first.

Allianz Global Assistance NZ Ltd is our preferred insurance provider for international students. Enrolled students will be charged Allianz’s Studentsafe Inbound University insurance premium when enrolment is completed. You must pay this fee unless the University approves the use of an alternative insurance provider.

You are not automatically covered for pre-existing medical conditions. Should you have a pre-existing medical condition, you will need to apply for cover from Allianz.

Pregnancy is not covered by insurance in New Zealand

The laws in New Zealand about pregnancy and the medical/professional costs related to pregnancy have changed in the last few years. Currently any person who is a non-resident in New Zealand (such as a student visa holder) will have to pay the full costs of pregnancy and delivery at non-resident rates.

It is exciting and exhilarating when planning for a holiday trip. Coming to New Zealand to study can be likewise if you keep an open mind, be open to making friends, take opportunities to experience your new environment, learn different ways of doing things and pick up Kiwi lingo. Being prepared for a big change in your life when moving to a new country can help you be adjusted to the local culture and settle down.

ADJUSTING TO LIFE IN NEW ZEALAND

On arrival in a new country, it is quite common for people to experience some culture shock. This is a normal reaction to having many new experiences all at once. Culture shock can make some people feel overwhelmed and homesick. Emotions such as sadness, loneliness, fear, tiredness and confusion can be normal, though at other times you may feel hopeful, pleased, excited, independent and confident.

Some of the things international students talk about in counselling are loneliness and homesickness, academic difficulties, speaking up in tutorials, confusion and anxiety, relationship problems, financial pressures, and many other things as well.

Although New Zealand has a relaxed, friendly lifestyle, there are behaviours which may affect your ability to fit in and make friends. To help you settle in New Zealand, here is some information on common social values and customs that will help you adapt to life in New Zealand.

ALCOHOL

We have a drinking culture in New Zealand, but it is fine to have non-alcoholic drinks when you are socialising.

The legal age for buying alcohol in New Zealand is 18. There are strict rules against providing alcohol for people under that age.

BRIBERY

Bribery is not part of the New Zealand culture. It causes serious problems to society and is illegal in this country.

DISCRIMINATION
New Zealanders abide by the Human Rights Act 1993, which ensures that all people in New Zealand are treated fairly and equally. It is unlawful to discriminate on the grounds of your gender, sexual orientation, marital status, religious or ethical belief, colour, race, ethnic or national origin or disability. For more information, please visit: https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/about-massey/health-safety-and-wellbeing/rainbow-commitment.cfm

JAY WALKING
At all times, use designated pedestrian walkways or crossing for your personal safety. There are rules around where and how you cross the road. Getting it wrong can result in fines from $10 to $35.

PUNCTUALITY
Kiwis can be casual when it comes to being in certain places on time. When it comes to scheduled meetings or appointments it is important to be punctual. Make sure you check meeting times and places ahead, so that you may get there on time. Contact the person that you are meeting if you are running late or unable to make an appointment.

QUEUING
You must form queues and wait in line when waiting to purchase something, waiting to board a bus, waiting at a bank etc. It is considered impolite to push in front of someone who was waiting before you.

RUBBISH AND RECYCLING
Rubbish and recycling bins are conveniently located on campus and public areas. Make use of them to dispose of waste. If there are no rubbish bins, you should carry the rubbish until it can be put in a bin. Keep New Zealand clean and green.

SMOKING
There is a no smoking or vaping policy on the university campus. Under the NZ smokefree laws, the buildings and grounds of schools and early childhood centres are kept smokefree. Other smokefree areas include indoor areas of licensed premises and workplaces.

If you want to smoke, it is polite to ask the people around you if they mind, even if you are outside in an area where smoking is permitted.
SOCIAL CUSTOMS, MANNERS AND ACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR

On the surface, Kiwis are friendly and outgoing. But we are also quite private. Although it is easy to start a conversation with us, we do not like sharing a lot of personal information. Topics to avoid include how much people earn, why they do not have any children or are not married, their weight - anything personal.

It is okay to ask people what they did on the weekend or how their children are. Sport and weather are also safe topics.

Some of the customs in New Zealand come from Māori culture. For example, you are often expected to take your shoes off indoors and it is important not to sit on tables or pillows. Māori people will often say a prayer (karakia) to bless food before eating it, and they may greet you with a hongi (pressing of the noses together) or a kiss on the cheek.

Other socially acceptable behaviours which can affect your ability to fit in and make friends are:

- Say “Please” when you ask someone for help.
- Say “Thank you” when a person helps you.
- Be patient. Wait for your turn and do not push ahead of others who may be waiting.
- A “Loud Mouth” is not appreciated. Speak loud enough for the person who needs to hear you, but not so loud that other people are disturbed by your conversation. This includes talking on your mobile phone.
- When there are more than 2 people together, do not use a language which one of those people do not understand. Remember this when you are with a staff member. The exception is when trying to explain something to a person who is having difficulty understanding.
- Gum should only be chewed silently with your mouth closed and not while talking. Eating and drinking sounds should be as quiet as possible.
- Do not drop litter (even a cigarette butt) and do not spit on the ground.
- Do not “sniff”. If you have a runny nose, use a tissue regularly away from other people. Cover your mouth if you need to cough or sneeze.
- Personal freshness (daily shower with body soap, clean teeth, fresh breath, using a deodorant every day and wearing clean clothes) will ensure that you are nice to be near.
- Strong odours are unpleasant for other people. They may not want to talk to you if you have just smoked a cigarette or eaten garlic. Too much aftershave or perfume may also be overpowering, so use in moderation.

SOCIAL GATHERINGS

Social functions such as barbecues (BBQs), dinners or parties are common and can be held in private homes, parks and restaurants. When dining with a group in a restaurant it is usual for the cost to be split equally between the group.

You may get an invitation that says “bring a plate” or BYO. “Bring a plate” means bring a plate of food to share. BYO means “bring your own” drinks or your own meat for a BBQ. If the hosts says “don’t bring anything”, you can still bring a small gift.

New Zealanders have a relaxed attitude to invitations. Sometimes people will say they are coming to a party and not turn up. Do not take it personally.

TIPPING

Tipping is not compulsory or expected. Kiwis tip when they feel that the service they have received has been particularly good.
About the Law

The Smoke-free Environments Act was passed in 1990 and last updated in 2003. The purpose of the Act was to:

- Reduce the exposure of non-smokers to second-hand smoke;
- Regulate the marketing and promotion of tobacco products;
- Monitor and regulate the presence of harmful constituents in tobacco products and tobacco smoke.

The Act

- Places restrictions on smoking in workplaces;
- Requires all workplaces to have a policy on smoking and to review that policy annually;
- Places bans on smoking in public transport and certain other public places, and restricted smoking in cafes;
- Provides for the control and disclosure, of the contents of tobacco products.

Ban on Sale and Supply of Smoking Products to People Under 18

- The sale of cigarettes, tobacco products and herbal smoking products to people under 18 years of age is prohibited.
- The supply of cigarettes and tobacco products (in public places) to people under 18 is prohibited, for example, buying cigarettes on behalf of, or for, young people and giving the cigarettes to people under 18 outside any shop.
- Retailers selling cigarettes, tobacco or herbal smoking products must display a sign stating that the sale of cigarettes, tobacco and herbal smoking products to people under 18 years of age is prohibited.

Massey Smokefree University

Massey University is committed to providing a healthy environment for everyone who works, studies, visits, or has business on University campuses.

All University workplaces, grounds and vehicles are totally smoke and vaping free except for the temporary designated smoking/vaping areas.
STICKING TOGETHER
You love your mates (most of the time!) and we love them too. So, when you’re drinking, stick together and look out for each other. It’s best if someone in the team isn’t going to get too wrecked and they can keep an eye out for the rest.

SHARE A TAXI
If you don’t want to disturb anyone else, put some cash aside for a taxi home. If you share, you can save some money as well.

WALKING HOME?
This is probably not such a good idea. If you have to walk home, try to walk with a friend. Don’t let your friends wander off by themselves either, especially if they have been drinking.

AND REMEMBER
Drinking alcohol is your choice and you can choose to make it an enjoyable experience. Sometimes, less is more. Have a few, feel good, but not out of control. Listen to your body and think about your own limit, and tomorrow morning!

ASSISTANCE
If it is hard to stop drinking, it might help to talk to someone you trust. Visit the Health & Counselling Centre on your campus or ring the Alcohol Helpline on 0800 787 797. They are good listeners and will have some helpful ideas.
As an international student, you must hold a valid student visa at all times. If you entered the country on a visitor visa or a working holiday visa, you must change it to a student visa before you can be enrolled. Your visa is valid from the moment it is issued until its expiry date, or until you are granted a new visa.

THE STUDENT VISA REGULATIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Your visa must match your enrolled programme and campus of study.
