Purpose

The scholarship supports students with a passion for urban and environmental planning enter the first-year of the Bachelor of Resource and Environmental Planning at Massey University.

Background

Massey's Bachelor of Resource and Environmental Planning (BRP) is a unique degree that combines urban and natural resource planning. The degree is accredited by the New Zealand Planning Institute (NZPI) and is the first undergraduate professional planning degree in New Zealand and Australia that you can study both on campus or by distance.

Value and Tenure

The value of the scholarship is up to $1,000 to be paid towards tuition fees. The tenure of the scholarship is one year.

Typical Number on Offer

Typically, up to five scholarships are available annually.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- New Zealand citizens or permanent residents
- intending to enrol full time or part time in the first year of a Bachelor of Resource and Environmental Planning at Massey University on campus or by distance

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on the applicant's career aspirations and motivation for enrolling in the BRP as demonstrated by a short 500-word personal statement on their interest in urban and environmental planning.

Selection Committee

The scholarship is awarded by the University Scholarships Selection Committee on the recommendation of a panel consisting of staff within the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Conditions of the Scholarship

Applicants who have completed university courses to a maximum of 60 credits while at secondary school will be eligible for consideration.

The value of the award is up to $1,000 towards tuition fees in year 1 of the Bachelor of Resource and Environmental Planning. Should the cost of the tuition fees be less than $1,000 the scholarship value will be adjusted to reflect the lower amount.

The tuition fee payments will be made in one instalment of up to $1,000 to the Massey University Student Fee account after the official financial withdrawal date of semester one for year 1 of the scholarship award.

Where a student recipient withdraws from study, any payment offered through this scholarship will not be honoured or credited for future use.

If a recipient withdraws from the approved programme and is eligible for a refund of their fees, Massey University will retain the scholarship proportion of the fee paid to the recipient.

Receipt of the scholarship is subject to the recipient remaining enrolled in an eligible programme.

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries, or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries, or awards permit co-tenure.
