Massey University Food Technology Undergraduate Scholarship

Scholarship Regulations

Focus

Food Technology

Level of Study

Undergraduate

Purpose

The Massey University Food Technology Undergraduate Scholarship supports students entering the first year of the Bachelor of Food Technology (Honours).

Value and Tenure

The value of the scholarship is up to $6,000 to be dispersed as follows:

- direct payment to the recipient of $5,000
- support through the Scholars Massey programme up to the value of $1,000

The tenure is one year.

Typical Number on Offer

The number of scholarships will be determined based on available funding, typically four scholarships will be awarded.

Eligibility

Applicants will be:

- a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident
- intending to enrol in the first year of a Bachelor of Food Technology (Honours) at Massey University in the year following the award

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on the applicant's stated motivation and passion for studying Food Technology.
Academic background may also be taken into consideration.

Consideration of personal characteristics, including cultural identity, background, and experience, will be given to ensure that equity outcomes are achieved.

Selection Committee

The scholarship will be selected by the University Scholarships Selection Committee on the recommendation of a panel including staff from the School of Food Technology and Natural Sciences, Massey University.

Conditions of the Scholarship

Recipients will join the Scholars Massey community. This community offers advice and support on scholar development through activities and events, alongside peer mentoring opportunities.

The payment will be paid in two equal instalments following Massey University's official withdrawal date without financial penalty in semesters one and two.

The scholarship may be held in conjunction with other scholarships, bursaries, or awards, so long as those scholarships, bursaries, or awards permit co-tenure.