Urban Culture and Ideologies in Medieval and Early Modern Europe: c.1100-1600
Thursday 30 January 2014

9.30 am  Opening of conference

Writing Urban History

9.40 am  Prof. James M. Murray (Western Michigan University)
In the Heart of the City: “Urban” History and St. Donatian’s Church, Bruges

10.20 am  Dr. Lindsay Diggleman (University of Auckland)
Writing Norman Capitals: Chronicle Accounts of Urban Unrest in Twelfth-Century Palermo, Rouen and London

11.00 am  Morning Tea

Urban Schools

11.30 am  Prof. Constant J. Mews (Monash University)
The Ambiguities of Christian Hebraism in the Twelfth-Century Schools

12.10 pm  Dr. Chris Jones (University of Canterbury)
Connecting the Urban Environment with Political Ideas in Late Capetian France

12.50 pm  Lunch
Urban Ideology and Media

2.00 pm  Dr Peter Howard (Monash University)
Making a City and Citizens: Preaching in Renaissance Florence

2.40 pm  Prof. Johan Oosterman (Radboud University, Nijmegen)
Discovering New Media. Anthonis de Roovere and the Early Printing Press

3.25 pm  Prof. Dr. Jan Dumolyn (Ghent University)
Guild Ideologies in Later Medieval Flanders

4.00 pm  Tea

Urban Crime and Punishment: Fictions

4.40 pm  Prof. Peter Arnade (University of Hawaii)
Archives in the Fiction: Pardon Letters in the Burgundian Low Countries

5.20 pm  Prof. Carole M. Cusack (University of Sydney)
Medieval Detective Fiction and the Reality of Urban Crime at Oxford University: Ian Morson’s William Falconer Novels
7.30 pm    Conference Dinner at the Wine Box Restaurant, Albany Village (239 State Highway 17)
Friday 31 January

Constructing the Citizen

9.00 am   Dr. Mark Amsler (University of Auckland)
Urban Linguistic Ecology in the Late Middle Ages

9.40 am   Jenny Smith (University of Melbourne)
Constant Higgling: Urbanity and Civility from the Medieval to the Early Modern

10.30 am  Barbara Rouse
Nuisance Neighbours and Persistent Polluters: the Urban Code of Behaviour in Late Medieval London

11.10 am  Morning Tea

11.40 am  Amanda McVitty (Massey University)
‘Give me my name of a true man’: Treason, Manhood, and Political Subjecthood in Fifteenth-Century London

12.20 pm  Dr. Roger Nicholson (University of Auckland)
‘Cursed designs’ and a ‘haryste of hedys’: Constructing Treason in the London Chronicles

1.00 pm    Lunch
Images of the City: Europe and Beyond

2.00 pm  Dr. Kim Phillips (University of Auckland)
Europe Looks East: Chinese Cities and the European Urban Gaze, c. 1298 – c. 1440

2.40 pm  Dr. Tania M. Colwell (Australian National University)
Approaching the City: Images of the Foreign and the Familiar in Late Medieval Parisian Manuscripts

3.30-3.45 pm  Close of conference

Conference Convenors and Administrators
Dr Andrew Brown, Dr Karen Jillings, Amanda McVitty, Tina Sheehan

Acknowledgements
The conference acknowledges the support of the School of Humanities, Massey University, the IAUP (Belgian Federal research program) and the Belgian Science Policy Office.