Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

1. Applicants must be new to Massey University international students and employees of Dilmah Tea or the immediate family member of a Dilmah Tea employee such as son/daughter/husband/wife, and currently living in Sri Lanka. Students completing a Foundation programme at Professional and Continuing Education (PaCE), Massey University, will be considered as a new student.
2. The recipient must meet all programme admission and entry requirements.
3. The recipient is responsible for obtaining the appropriate visa for study in New Zealand (if required).
4. The recipient must be enrolled in an eligible programme offered by Massey University.
5. The recipient must have written approval from their manager or other nominated senior representative of Dilmah Tea, or their immediately family member who is a Dilmah Tea employee.

International Fees

Applicants must remain full fee paying international students whilst studying in their approved programme in New Zealand or online throughout the duration of their study.

Term

One Study Award will be awarded per year. The successful recipient will receive a one off amount of NZD$2,500 towards their fees.

Value

The Massey University Dilmah Tea International Study Award is valued at NZD $2,500.

Payments

The Study Award will be awarded as a tuition fee discount in each semester of study following confirmation of enrolment, after the official withdrawal without financial penalty (WMAR) date.

In the event that a recipient withdraws from the approved programme, Massey University has the absolute discretion to determine whether all or any part of the Study Award shall be refunded to Massey University.

The Study Award is not transferrable should the recipient withdraw from Massey University.

Conditions of Study

Recipients must be full-fee-paying international students, who are neither citizens nor permanent residents of New Zealand or Australia, and be or have been (or have an immediate family member who is) an employee of Dilmah Tea for a minimum of six months immediately preceding commencement of study. If, during the tenure of an award, a recipient's immigration status changes so that he or she is no longer a full-fee paying international student and thereby obtains a partial refund of academic fees from the University, the award will be withdrawn.

Co-tenure

The Study Award may be held in conjunction with other Scholarships or Awards, so long as those Scholarships or Awards are not from Massey University and they permit co-tenure.

Concessions

At the discretion of Massey University, the terms and conditions of the Study Award may be modified in special circumstances or to avoid hardship to any recipient.

Admission

An offer of a Massey University Dilmah Tea International Study Award is not an offer of admission to Massey University, nor does it imply approval of enrolment in a programme at Massey University.

Selection

The Study Award will be based on demonstrated evidence of a project the applicant has led that has contributed to a positive impact on their community and will be awarded at the discretion of the selection committee.

A selection committee will be appointed by Massey University's Office of Global Engagement to assess all applications.

Applicants will be notified whether or not they have been awarded the Study Award as soon as possible after the application deadline.
