Introduction

This group of archives contains material created by Army Education Welfare Service. This is a collection of materials that has come to the Archives from various sources. The collection is maintained for reference purposes and is not a complete archive of Army Education Welfare Service material. The course booklets we hold all relate to courses in which Massey Agricultural College played a role.

The Army Education Welfare Service was established in 1942 to help servicemen integrate back into civilian life. Apart from library services, it ran training courses in conjunction with a number of training institutions in New Zealand – one of these being Massey Agricultural College.

With the aid of these training institutions the Army Education Welfare Service regularly published booklets and handbooks on a wide range of topics – from agriculture to trades and general topics. In addition to the booklets listed in this inventory, the Massey University Library holds a number of these Army Education Welfare Service publications.
