Purpose:

Massey University is committed to giving effect to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi within the policies and practices of the University, and to recognise the mutual benefits which follow.

Policy Objectives:

The overall aim is that Massey University should be:

- a Māori-relevant university
- a place where Māori language and culture can flourish
- a place where Māori students are likely to graduate
- a university where Māori will obtain relevant higher degrees
- a university which has the teaching and research capacity to make a substantial contribution to Māori development
- a university that provides academic leadership for Maori to make a substantial contribution to the growth and development of Aotearoa New Zealand.
- a university that provides academic leadership for Māori development.

Policy:

In order to achieve these objectives, Massey University has developed university-wide strategies; the Maori @ Massey Strategy and KIA MAIA: Key Initiatives for A Māori Academic Investment Agenda at Massey University and KIA MARAMA: Key Initiatives to Accelerate Massey's Academic & Research Agenda for Māori Advancement.
