WHERE LEADERS
ARE MADE

TOASTMASTERS INTERNATIONAL

About

Since 1924, Toastmasters International has helped millions of men and women become more confident in front of an audience. Our network of clubs and their learn-by-doing programme are sure to help you become a better speaker and leader.

It is the world's largest organisation dedicated to helping people achieve their potential by developing members' communication and leadership skills. Worldwide Toastmasters is present in over 140 countries with over 350,000 active members in over 16,000 clubs. These clubs are grouped into areas and divisions which, in turn, are grouped into districts and regions.

Region 12

Toastmasters is a global organisation divided into well over 100 districts which are split into 14 regions. New Zealand, Australia, Papua New Guinea, Indonesia, Malaysia and Brunei are known as region 12. Public speaking and leadership are learned in a warm and supportive environment in around 1,800 clubs, comprised of over 45,000 members, throughout the region.

New Zealand

The first club in New Zealand started in Dunedin in 1961. By 1972 the news of this fantastic self-development organisation had spread and membership across the country had grown to over 1,000 members in 43 clubs, prompting Toastmasters International to recognise New Zealand with full District status.

Over 50 years later and the organisation in New Zealand has grown to a point where there are currently over 280 clubs throughout the country, catering for over 6,000 members every year.

In 2018 the New Zealand organisation reached the stage where the country split from being a single district (District 72) into two districts - District 112, which covers the North Island as far down as the northern Wellington Regional Council boundary; and, District 72, which covers Wellington Region and the South Island.

New Zealand is proud to have had two Toastmasters elected as International President of Toastmasters International:

John Fauvel, DTM, in 1987
and Len Jury, DTM, in 1997

Glen Murphy, DTM, was elected to the International Board of Directors, 1998-00

Toastmasters International Mission Statement

We empower individuals to become more effective communicators and leaders.

Through its member clubs, Toastmasters international helps men and women learn the arts of speaking, listening and thinking – vital skills that promote self-actualisation, enhance leadership potential, foster human understanding, and contribute to the betterment of mankind.

It is basic to this mission that Toastmasters International continually expand its worldwide network of member clubs, thereby offering ever-greater numbers of people the opportunity to benefit from its programmes.

Values

Toastmasters International's core values are integrity, respect, service, and excellence.

These are values worthy of a great organisation, and we believe we should incorporate them as anchor points in every decision we make. Our core values provide us with a means of not only guiding but also evaluating our operations, our planning, and our vision for the future.

Club Mission – A Statement of Shared Values

Every Toastmasters club shares the same mission, clearly defined in the following mission statement:

We provide a supportive and positive learning experience in which members are empowered to develop communication and leadership skills, resulting in greater self-confidence and personal growth.

Through this mission, each Toastmaster gains a clear understanding of the club's purpose, and the organisation as a whole benefits from a shared set of values and goals.

WHAT TOASTMASTERS CAN DO FOR YOU

Regardless of your background, Toastmasters is the most efficient, enjoyable and affordable way of gaining great communication and leadership skills.

Better Speaking

Toastmasters will give you the skills and confidence you need to effectively express yourself in any situation. By learning to effectively formulate and express your ideas, you enter a new world of possibilities. You will be more persuasive and confident when giving presentations, and you will improve your one-on-one dealings with others.

Better Leading

Leadership is the art of empowering others to do what you wish to be done. To do so, you need to know how to communicate with others and work as a team to achieve goals. In a Toastmasters club, you will do both. You will find out how to vary your approach to suit the needs of different people, whether they are the audience for a speech, the committee for a fundraiser, or co-workers and managers.

TOASTMASTERS MEMBERSHIP PROVIDES THE FOLLOWING BENEFITS...

- A unique means of learning and improving your communication abilities within a supportive and motivational atmosphere of growth, fellowship and fun with your fellow Toastmasters club members.
- Access to professionally prepared educational materials and resources on: public speaking; interpersonal communication; leadership; listening; critical thinking; effective evaluation; facilitating and participating in discussions; techniques to enhance presentations involving technological resources; event management; parliamentary procedures; and running effective meetings.
- Experience in leadership development through training, involvement and activities.
- Unlimited opportunities for personal and professional advancement based on improved abilities and expanded experience.
- The Toastmaster magazine - every month the Toastmaster provides new insights on communication techniques, ideas and opinions.
- Continuing development of, and exposure to, proven communication techniques.
- Increased confidence, ability to organise logical thought and present it self-assuredly, and better understanding of interpersonal relationships.
- Affiliation with an internationally renowned educational organisation.

How Does It Work?

The environment we provide is friendly and supportive, and the self-paced programme allows you to build confidence with each speaking assignment.

You develop and practice your skills through delivering prepared speeches, filling meeting roles and/or participating in impromptu speaking sessions, called Table Topics.

Constructive evaluation is the heart of the Toastmasters programme. Each time you practice your communication skills you will receive written, verbal and informal feedback which will point out strengths you demonstrate and suggest areas where you can continue to develop and improve your skills.

SPEAKER EDUCATION

Toastmasters Pathways Learning Experience

The Pathways Learning Experience is an online learning system that provides self-paced learning based around a set of Core Competencies

- Public Speaking – Public speaking builds members’ skills in delivering both prepared and impromptu speeches. Through practice, peer evaluation and educational tools, members learn how to present their messages effectively, concisely and professionally.
- Interpersonal Communication – members communicate with others, verbally, non-verbally, in writing or via electronic methods. Members learn how to build relationships, resolve conflict and communicate well with others.
- Strategic Leadership – the ability to see the big picture and have the ideas and vision to do things better. The Toastmasters strategic leader has a vision that is both attainable and inspiring. They are able to bring about positive change by inspiring others to get involved.
- Management – the ability to see the details and deals mostly with managing creative projects, planning, organising, and facilitating specific tasks.
- Confidence – Through self-reflection and evaluation, members learn to acknowledge their flaws and embrace their capacity for self-improvement. By learning how to set goals and meet them, they gain confidence in their own knowledge, skills and abilities.

Within these core competencies the Pathways programme provides the opportunity and flexibility to develop over 300 different sub-competencies.

Pathways sets us on a journey of personal and professional development. It reflects a journey where there are many options, many ways to achieve your goals, while moving forward all the time at your own pace. The programme offers members:

- A learning experience tailored to personal and professional goals
- Communication and leadership skills with real-world application
- A wide range of educational interventional digital content to support the projects, such as videos, quizzes, assessments, tutorials, activities and documentation
- Materials may be printed directly from Base Camp, the learning management system
- Standardised evaluation criteria and high quality feedback
- A strong mentorship process to support both mentors and protégés

Pathways helps members meet their needs in an evolving global marketplace. The programme also allows for early and frequent achievement, which provides members a recognition of their accomplishments and motivation.

Your mentor will assist you in understanding how it all works and will provide a sounding board for your questions and ideas. Your mentor may also help coach you through your early speech projects and provide feedback on performance.

You will receive the monthly ‘Toastmaster’ magazine - full of helpful articles, such as: “Your Career: What’s Holding You Back?”; “Ten Principles of Motivational Speaking”; and, “Why Do Top CEOs Shine As Speakers?”.

What Happens When I Join A Club?

A lot of learning and fun happens within your own Toastmasters club! A typical club is made up of 15 - 25 people who meet on a regular basis for between one to three hours. The meetings are run in a structured way, ensuring everyone gets an opportunity to stand up and speak. You will be told of your speaking assignment well in advance, allowing you plenty of time to prepare.

Speaking assignments are varied. They include chairing a meeting, facilitating a Table Topics™ session, offering a point of view, evaluating other speakers, all the way to delivering full speeches of 7 minutes or more on the topic of your choice with clearly defined objectives to meet. Importantly, whenever you stand up and speak, you receive encouraging, helpful feedback on how well you went and what you can improve, through formal evaluations.

When you're ready, opportunities to take on leadership and mentoring roles will present themselves, allowing you to further develop your personal skill set. Many members believe these opportunities are the most valuable way to enhance their already developing skills and learning experience.

When you apply yourself, you will be amazed at how quickly your communication and leadership skills improve.

SPEECHCRAFT COURSES

Many clubs run short courses in public speaking, known as Speechcraft. These are typically 6-8 weeks long, and follow a structured learn-by-doing speaker training programme. They are ideal for those who need or want an accelerated introduction to public speaking. Membership to the club which runs the course is optional, but encouraged.

More details can be found at www.toastmasters.org.nz. Search for ‘speechcraft’.

Leadership Opportunities Within The Club

Leadership development begins in your own club. Every year, the club selects 7 people to organise the many activities which a club needs to run successfully. These are:

- President - acts as Chief Executive Officer of the club.
- Vice-President Education - organises meeting agendas, helps members gain opportunities to develop their skills, and signs off project completion for members.
- Vice-President Membership - responsible for planning/running membership building programmes, following up with visitors, and keeping track of existing membership.
- Vice-President Public Relations - promotes the club in the community and online.
- Secretary - responsible for all official meeting minutes, correspondence, and maintenance of club records.
- Treasurer - prepares budgets, tracks and pays expenses, and is responsible for all club financial transactions, including submitting membership fees to World Headquarters.
- Sergeant-at-Arms - schedules club meeting locations, maintains club equipment and supplies, and prepares the venue for each meeting

Each of these roles has its own opportunities and rewards. Other club members look to the executive for leadership and guidance. To many, serving as a club officer provides excellent preparation for leadership in the wider community.

Each year those in club executive positions receive free specialised training from experienced Toastmasters members in leadership, administration, membership building, goal setting, running contests and other aspects of club management.

The Distinguished Club Programme

To assist the club executive to manage their roles, they are given a “health check”; a series of targets relating to club membership, administrative efficiency and member educational achievements.

Clubs which achieve some or all of the assigned goals within an executive year receive special recognition from Toastmasters International.

- Distinguished Club - achieve 5 out of 10 goals
- Select Distinguished Club - achieve 7 out of 10 goals
- President’s Distinguished Club - achieve 9 out of 10 goals

In this way, Toastmasters provides the tools, the education, the opportunities and the recognition needed to foster real leadership development.

Leadership Opportunities Beyond The Club

Members who have served as club executives often proceed to higher leadership positions within the organisation. For example, the clubs in Region 12 are organised into Districts. Districts are further broken into smaller Divisions and Areas. At each of these levels there are leadership and staff roles which contribute in a meaningful and rewarding way to the successful running of the wider organisation. Area Directors and Division Directors, together with a District Management Team, form the District Executive Committee, one of the three key decision making bodies of our organisation. You may like to think of these roles as middle and higher management positions within the organisation. The skills you develop as a leader within the Toastmasters organisation are easily applied to your work, community or home environment.

CONTESTS

What Contests Can You Enter?

To add an extra challenge to your speaking progression, Toastmasters offers the opportunity to compete in a number of contests throughout the year. While highly recommended, participation in contests is voluntary.

The main contests, which go from club to District level (at least) are:

- International Speech Contest – Deliver a 5 to 7 minute speech on any topic of your choice
- Evaluation Speech Contest – Deliver a 2 to 3 minute presentation, providing a positive and helpful evaluation of a guest speaker.
- Humorous Speech Contest – Deliver a 5 to 7 minute entertaining speech
- Table Topics Speech Contest – Deliver a 1 to 2 minute impromptu speech on a single topic which is provided to all contestants without preparation time.

Entry to these contests is open to any financial member of a club in good standing, with a few exceptions relating to members who are nominated for elected positions in the higher echelons of Toastmasters or who are otherwise presenting at the District Convention at which the District Finals for these contests will be held.

Entrants in the International Speech contest must have earned a Certificate of Completion in Levels 1 and 2 of any path in the Toastmasters Pathways Learning Experience unless the member is from a club which has chartered less than one year prior to the club speech contest.

All speeches must be substantially original (ie, no more than 25% of the speech may be devoted to quoting, paraphrasing, or referencing another person's content and any such use should be cited).

In the Humorous Speech Contest the speech should be thematic in nature (opening, body, close) and not a monologue (ie, not a series of one-liners).

There are a variety of other club contests which may be something your club decides to hold, such as Tall Tales Contest, Oral Reading Contest, Debate Contest, Poetry Contest. These do not progress past club level, unlike the four mentioned earlier.

Contest Progression

So you've won your club contest in one of the big four mentioned above – what's next?

- First you compete with the representatives from other clubs in your Area contest.
- Winners of the Area contest compete with other Area winners in your Division contest.
- Winners of the Division contest compete with each other at the District finals.
- The winner of the District International Speech Contest may progress to the World Championship Semi-Finals. The winners of the Semi-Finals will progress to the World Championship Final. The winner of the World Championship Contest is then given the permanent title of 'World Champion of Public Speaking' for that year and may not compete again. These finals are usually held in North America. The International Speech contest is the only contest to be held on an International level.

New Zealand, District 72, is proud to have had two Toastmasters bring home the title of "World Champion of Public Speaking" (WCOPS):

David Nottage, in 1996, and Brett Rutledge, in 1998.

Kingi Biddle, finished 2nd in 2013, after also making it onto the final stage in 2011, and

Anna Campbell, finished 3rd in the WCOPS in 2006

SPREADING THE WORD

We Ask You To Share And Increase The Benefits You Gain Through Toastmasters By...

- Giving constructive feedback to fellow members as they develop their communication and leadership abilities – while developing your own skills simultaneously.
- Providing leadership at your club at every opportunity and helping your club maintain the Toastmasters standards of excellence in programming and administration.
- Sharing your positive experiences by telling others about the programme and the benefits and inviting them to visit and join.
- Utilising your Toastmasters experience through increased involvement in your community.
- Making Toastmasters an enjoyable and worthwhile experience for yourself and others by projecting the Toastmasters image in everyday business, social and community situations.

Attracting New Members To Your Club

Bringing new members to your club keeps it healthy and vibrant. There are a number of tried and tested methods of getting visitors to your meetings, and turning those visitors into committed club members. These include:

- Running quality meetings – When visitors see an organised, well run meeting with speeches prepared in advance, positive and helpful evaluations, the meeting running to time, and members having fun while learning, they are far more likely to see a place for themselves in your club.
- Looking after visitors – Make sure newcomers to the club are greeted, made to feel welcome, given a welcome kit, and invited to either join or at least visit again. Follow up a visitor with a phone call, note or email to thank them for coming and invite them to the next meeting.
- Regular club promotion – This can be via letter box drops, leaving this booklet or Toastmaster magazine in libraries, doctor's surgeries and other such places, or writing articles for your local paper.
- Online presence – Many clubs identify that a large number of visitors find out about their clubs through their club website, Facebook page, Meetup profile/events and the like.
- Special promotions – you can revitalise your membership building drive by running Demonstration Meetings, bring-a-friend nights, theme nights, or anniversary meetings where past members are invited to attend.
- Speechcraft courses – These community based courses are an ideal way of introducing people to the Toastmasters environment where they can learn the basics with other newcomers to public speaking. Many participants are motivated to join a Toastmasters club so they can continue to improve the skills they learn at Speechcraft.

Why Not Start A New Club?

One of the most challenging and rewarding of all leadership activities within Toastmasters is to help start up a new club, especially in the role of Sponsor or Mentor.

Where are the opportunities? Just about everywhere. We have clubs in businesses, organisations, universities, retirement villages, cultural communities and in the general community. Wherever there is a group of people with similar characteristics who would gain benefits from the Toastmasters programme, there is an opportunity to develop a club.

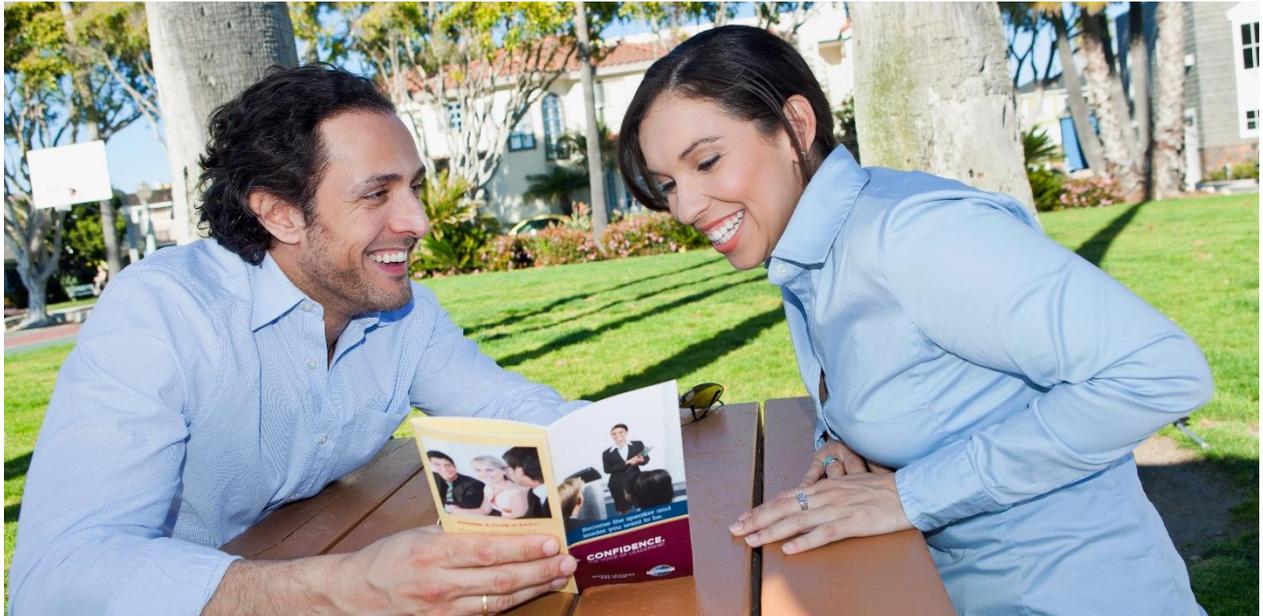

Submit an enquiry to the District Club Growth Director, email: clubgrowth@toastmasters.org.nz, who will guide and support you through all aspects of starting a new club.
