COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

OFFICE OF THE PRO VICE-CHANCELLOR ................................................. 1
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH AND MEDIA STUDIES .......................................... 2
SCHOOL OF GLOBAL STUDIES .............................................................. 6
SCHOOL OF HISTORY, PHILOSOPHY AND POLITICS ............................ 14
SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES ........................................................... 22
SCHOOL OF LANGUAGE STUDIES ......................................................... 26
SCHOOL OF MĀORI STUDIES ................................................................. 31
SCHOOL OF PSYCHOLOGY ................................................................... 35
SCHOOL OF RESOURCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING ............ 44
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL POLICY AND SOCIAL WORK .............................. 46
SCHOOL OF SOCIOLOGY AND WOMEN’S STUDIES ............................ 57
4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings
1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

7. Non-refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

12. Creative Works

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies
Carchidi, V. (1999). Clean, green New Zealand - or not?: Greening of the Campus Conference, September 30, Muncie, Indiana, USA.

14. Extension Activity

Lawn, J. M. (1999). (Seminar). Normalising trauma in literary and cultural studies. Massey University, August 20, Albany, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations
Farrow, A. (1999). Writing a play for the Manawatu. Women’s Book Festival, November 28, Palmerston North, NZ.

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews
Bassett, G. R. (1999, September 29). Rights to re-broadcast sport given to TV3 [Interview by A. Simpson]. The Dominion, 3.
School of Global Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

7. Non-refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

McKenna, M. (1999). Deregulation politics in New Zealand: A geographer’s reflections on rural protest. In R. Longhurst, & R. Peace (Eds.), IGU Gender proceedings: Southern Regional Conference of the International Geographical Union Commission on Gender (pp. 69-80), February 8-11, Dunedin, NZ. Dunedin, NZ: University of Otago, Department of Geography.

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Flenley, J. (1999). The history of human presence and impact in island South East Asia and the South Pacific. New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, July 5, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Association for Leisure Studies Conference, January 29-February 1, University of Waikato, Hamilton, NZ.

McKenna, M. (1999). The emperor has no clothes: Geographies of deregulation in New Zealand’s pipfruit sector. 95th Annual Congress, American Association of Geographers, March 24-27, Honolulu, Hawai’i, USA.

Overton, J. (1999). Geography is dead: Long live the geography of development. New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, July 6, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Scheyvens, R. (1999). Backpackers are beautiful: Assessing the potential of budget travellers to support community tourism in Africa. New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, July 7, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Striekski, B. (1999). Late holocene environmental and colonisation history of Northland, New Zealand. New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, July 5, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Xun, L. (1999). Possible evidence of human impact from off shore cores in the South China Sea. New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, July 5, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews
School of History, Philosophy and Politics

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Referred Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

12. Creative Works
Elsmore, B. M. (1999). Rushton roulette [Full-length stage play].

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Gower-Collins, C. (1999). The long-range desert group and coalition issues 1940-1943. MSI Conference on Coalition Warfare, August 21, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Hayward, J. S. A. (1999). Adolf Hitler and coalition leadership. MSI Conference on Coalition Warfare, August 22, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Hayward, J. S. A. (1999). Historical perspectives of airpower. Royal New Zealand Air Force Command and Staff College, July 1, Auckland, NZ.

Keenan, D. (1999). Nga pakanga whenua o mua: Wars without end. Second Annual Conference, Military Studies Institute, and Defence and Strategic Studies Programme, Massey University, August 22, Palmerston North, NZ.

Perrett, R. W. (1999). Introduction to moral reasoning. Manawatu-Whanganui Health Funding Authority Ethics Committee, March 6, Palmerston North, NZ.

Schouls, P. (1999). Ideas of progress. Australasian Association for Philosophy (NZ), December 9, University of Otago, Dunedin, NZ.

Schouls, P. (1999). The revolution of 1688: Who clipped whose wings? School of History, Philosophy and Politics, Massey University, August 26, Palmerston North, NZ.

Tennant, M. (1999). Sometimes when my heart was sad with snubs and coldness: A deaconess narrative of Māori mission work. New Zealand Historical Association Conference, December 5, University of Waikato, Hamilton, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newspaper Interviews
Hayward, J. S. A. (1999, September 2). Defence claims under attack [Interview by J. Myers]. Evening Standard (Palmerston North, NZ).
Hayward, J. S. A. (1999, September 18). End to freeze is welcomed [Interview by A. Browne]. Evening Standard (Palmerston North, NZ), 3.
School of Health Sciences

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Edited by Staff Member

3. Chapter in a Book

5. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies
Alpass, F. M. (1999). Climate: Conceptual and measurement issues. School of Psychology, Massey University, November 16, Palmerston North, NZ.
Batten, L. (1999). Assessing extramural students work. Training and Development Unit, Massey University, March 26, Palmerston North, NZ.
Batten, L. (1999). Casualisation of the nursing workforce: Implications for nurses and hospital services. Taranaki Base Hospital Chaplains, July 20, Taranaki Base Hospital, New Plymouth, NZ.
Batten, L., & Walton, J. (1999). Participating in qualitative research: No money back guarantees. 5th International Qualitative Health Research Conference, April 7-10, University of Newcastle, Newcastle, NSW, Australia.
Benn, C. (1999). Evidence-based contracting. Health Funding Authority, September 15, Palmerston North, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). Epistemological challenges in feminist research. School of Health Sciences PhD School, School of Health Sciences, Massey University, April 20, Palmerston North, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). Is Xenical a real solution to a real problem? Women’s Studies Seminar Series, Massey University, August 2, Palmerston North, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). The journey to becoming a researcher. New Zealand Perioperative Nurses Conference, November 8, Napier, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). Method issues in feminist research. Christchurch Polytechnic Faculty of Nursing, April 15, Christchurch, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). Nursing’s role in primary health care. Public Health Association, July 8, Palmerston North, NZ.

Carryer, J. B. (1999). Women managing menopause. School of Health Sciences PhD School, October 27, Palmerston North, NZ.

LaGrow, S., & Good, G. (1999). Getting the edge: Factors related to success in tertiary education for students with significant vision impairments. Disability in Education: Maximising Everyone’s Potential, August 30-September 1, Dunedin, NZ.

La Grow, S. (1999). What is this thing called rehabilitation: It’s all in your perspective. New Zealand Rehabilitation Association Conference, November 21, Auckland, NZ.

McCallin, A. M. (1999). Qualitative data analysis workshop for qualitative health researchers. Auckland School of Medicine, December 15, University of Auckland, NZ.

Pernice, R. (1999). Migration and mental health. School of Health Sciences PhD School, Massey University, April 19, Palmerston North, NZ.

Pernice, R. (1999). Quantitative and qualitative research methods: A comparison. Research Days, School of Health Sciences, Massey University, February 21, Palmerston North, NZ.

14. Extension activities

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Language Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies
da Gama, F. (1999). Contested spaces in José Maria Arguedas’ El zorro de arriba y el zorro de abajo. School of Language Studies, Massey University, November 22, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.
Haddon, R. (1999). Zhongguo shenti/Taiwan zuti: Lapitiao, shuncong yu zhengzhi fenlizhuyi. International Conference on Postwar Taiwan Literature: Culture, Identity, Social Change, November 12-14, National Taiwan University, Taipei, Taiwan.
Knight, P. (1999). CALL software in the classroom. Langsem Massey University ‘99 (Japanese Programme), New Zealand Association of Language Teachers, June 21, Palmerston North, NZ.

Knight, P. (1999). Your first language is a virus: Your brain will never be the same again. Langsem Massey University ‘99 (Japanese Programme), New Zealand Association of Language Teachers, June 21, Palmerston North, NZ.

Laurs, A. I. (1999). Kleist’s Die Verlobung in St Domingo. School of Language Studies, Massey University, November 22, Palmerston North, NZ.

Laurs, A. I. (1999). Der Zweikampf: Kleist and the art of subversion. Australasian Universities Language and Literature Association Congress XXX, February 9, University of Auckland, Auckland, NZ.

Ono, K. (1999). “Boku wa me ga sameta” tai “Boku wa me o samasita” [Intransitive and transitive versions of the Japanese sentence “I woke up”]. Kyoto Sangyo Daigaku Kokusai Gengo Kenkyujo [Kyoto Sangyo University International Institute for Linguistic Sciences], November 9, Kyoto Sangyo University, Kyoto, Japan.

Ono, K. (1999). “Boku wa me ga sameta” tai “Boku was me o samasita” [Intransitive and transitive versions in Japanese for the English sentence “I woke up”]. Nihon Gengo Gakkai 119 kai Taikai [Linguistic Society of Japan 119th Biannual Conference], November 28, Kobe Shoin Women’s University, Japan.

Watts, N. R. (1999). Immigrant language resources: Implications for business and education. New Zealand Business Education Round Table Seminar, June 3, Auckland, NZ.

Watts, N. R. (1999). Languages are good business: Putting language skills to work. Langsem Christchurch ’99, New Zealand Association of Language Teachers, August 6, Christchurch, NZ.

14. Extension Activity

15. Addresses to Community Organisations
Cropp, G. M. (1999). Citation for the award of the John Dunmore Medal to E. Jones and M. Pawliez. Alliance Française de Wellington, May 3, Wellington, NZ.

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews
School of Māori Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

---

School of Māori Studies

Massey University

9. Other Publications

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Taiapa, J. (1999). Te Hoe Nuku Roa: The project. Indigenous Women’s Organisation Representatives, August 5, Hilo, Hawai‘i, USA.

14. Extension Activity

Christensen, I. (1999). Muaupoko oral evidence to the Waitangi Tribunal. (Whakamāori kōrero), Muaupoko Tribal Authority Incorporated, April, Levin, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

Edwards, W. (1999). Toi te Kupu; He patengi raraunga reo Mäori. Te Kura o Mana Tamariki, October 18, Palmerston North, NZ.

Fitzgerald, E (1999). Te Hoe Nuku Roa Mäori household research: Mäori housing. Te Runanga o Ngati Raukawa, December 2, Otaki, NZ.

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Psychology

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

6. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

7. Non-refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

9. Other Publications

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Chamberlain, K. (1999). Methodolatry in qualitative health research. First International Conference on Critical and Qualitative Perspectives in Health Psychology, July 29, St John’s, Newfoundland, Canada.

Pachana, N. A. (1999). Comparison of the California Older Adult Stroop Test (COAST) and the Golden Stroop with head-injured adults. 17th Australasian Winter Conference on Brain Research (AWCBR), August 28-September 1, Queenstown, NZ.

Pachana, N. A. (1999). Developing your first web course: Psychological insights into the student interface. Distance Education Association of New Zealand, August 6, Wellington, NZ.

Pond, R. (1999). Who is she if she has been abused? Legal discourses of domestic violence. PST! Psychology Seminar Series, July 23, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Stephens, C., & Ross, N. (1999). What is the effect on affect of hormone replacement therapy use by mid-aged women? Sixth New Zealand Health Psychology Conference, February 18, Okoroire, NZ.

14. Extension Activity

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

Pachana, N. A. (1999). Garden and pet therapy in use with older populations. Annual General Meeting of the Mothers Union, October 14, Palmerston North, NZ.

Tuffin, A., Tuffin, K., & Watson, S. (1999). Linguistic resources which inform school health coordinators’ understandings of mental health and illness. Schizophrenia Fellowship Conference, April 9, Wellington School of Medicine, Wellington, NZ.

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Resource and Environmental Planning

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Chapter in a Book

3. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

4. Non-refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

5. Book Review

6. Other Publications
   McDonald, G., Le Heron, K., & Patterson, M. G. (1999). EcoLink water accounts. Palmerston North, NZ: Massey University, and McDermott Fairgray Group.

11. Software

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

14. Extension Activity

Forgie, V. E., Sunde, C. H., Taiepa, T. C., & Horsley, P. G. (1999). Exploring collaborative management initiatives between Whanganui iwi and the Department of Conservation: A record of a workshop held on 14 September to review the report, September 14, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

McDermott, P. J. (1999). The myths of urban sustainability. WEA Massey in the City Lecturer Series, March 17, Palmerston North, NZ.
School of Social Policy and Social Work

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings
Sullivan, M. (1999). Does it say what we mean, do we mean what it says, do we know what we are saying? Assessing disability policy in tertiary institutions from a social model perspective. Disability in education: maximising everybody’s potential [Computer Disk]. August 30-September 1, Dunedin, NZ. Dunedin, NZ: University of Otago, Otago Polytechnic, and Dunedin College of Education.
6. Non-refereed Journal Paper/Article

   Sullivan, M. (1999). Does it say what we mean, do we mean what it says, do we know what we are saying? Assessing disability policy in tertiary institutions from a social model perspective. AccessAbility: The newsletter for disabled students, 2(4).

7. Non-refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

   Walsh-Tapiata, W. (1999). Leave it to the iwi to decide for only they can take themselves into the future. In Building strong communities: Conference proceedings (pp. 1-12), February 17, Wanganui, NZ. Wanganui, NZ: Trust Bank Wanganui Community Trust.

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

12. Creative Works

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Munford, R., & Sanders, J. (1999). Through the eyes of the actors: Exploring family well-being with qualitative methodologies. Fifth International Qualitative Health Research Conference, April 9, Newcastle, N.S.W., Australia.

Selby, R. (1999). The role of the Anglican Church on the education of Māori girls. Te Taapapa o te Upo ko o te Ika o te Pihopatanga o Aotearoa, July 5, Te Wananga o Raukawa, Otaki, NZ.

Sullivan, M. (1999). Does it say what we mean, do we mean what it says, do we know what we are saying? Assessing disability policy in tertiary institutions from a social model perspective. Conference on Disability in Education - Maximising Everybody’s Potential, September 1, Dunedin, NZ.

14. Extension Activity

Waring, M. (1999). If you can’t do it in Queen Street, can you do it in Quezon City. Massey University, August 11, Albany, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

Walsh-Tapiata, W. (1999). Leave it to the iwi to decide for only they can take themselves into the future. Trust Bank Wanganui Community Trust, February 17, Wanganui, NZ.

16. Professional Consultancy

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

School of Sociology and Women’s Studies

1. Refereed Journal Paper/Article

2. Book Authored by Staff Member

3. Book Edited by Staff Member

4. Chapter in a Book

5. Refereed Paper in Conference/Meeting/Symposia Proceedings

Coleman, J. (1999). Avoiding extreme or hysterical tendencies: Keeping the politicians ship(ley)-shape. In Women’s Studies Association (NZ) Conference papers (pp. 68-76), June 26-28, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ, Auckland, NZ: Women’s Studies Association (NZ).

Dupuis, A., & de Bruin, A. (1999). Women in informal sector commerce: Towards incorporation of transactions costs analysis in the study of street vending. In Women’s Studies Association (NZ) Conference papers (pp. 77-81), June 26-28, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ, Auckland, NZ; Women’s Studies Association (NZ).

8. Book Review

9. Other Publications

12. Creative Works

13. Addresses to Professional Bodies

Spoonley, P. (1999). Right wing political extremism in New Zealand: Constituencies and possibilities. Massey University, July 22, Palmerston North, NZ.

14. Extension Activity

Alice, L. & Star, L. (Convenors). (1999). Queer in New Zealand symposium, December 5-7, Women’s Studies, Massey University, Palmerston North, NZ.

Spoonley, P. (Member). (1999). Kawa Whakaruruhau Committee, Faculty of Nursing and Health, Universal College of Learning, Palmerston North, NZ.

15. Addresses to Community Organisations

17. Radio, Television and Newsprint Interviews

Spoonley, P. (1999, June 4). Klan claims to have room for Māori [Interview by D. Mager]. New Zealand Herald.

