Please note: Student Teachers often need to drive themselves to and from their practicum school/centre. Your teaching placements may be up to an hour's drive away from your home.

4. Observation report

To help us assess your suitability for a teaching career, and your literacy skills you must observe a group of learners and submit an OBSERVATION REPORT. Please refer to and use the official OBSERVATION REPORT form.

5. Te Kura Hāpai

Candidates wishing to undertake this programme are required to have the support of a Te Kura Kaupapa Māori. Please submit the official TE KURA HĀPAI form as completed by your local Kura, with your application.

6. Selection process

All suitable candidates will be interviewed in te reo Māori as part of the selection process. Interviews are held in Manawatū, and other centres nationwide or by Skype. You will be advised of the date, time and venue of your interview and you are welcome to bring whanau or support people to the interview if you choose. You may be asked about whether you:

1. A sample from the NCEA 3 Te Reo Rangatira – panui and tuhituhi external examination and/or;
2. A reo Māori test based on a Massey University Level 1 examination to determine your ability to study at Level 5 and/or;
3. A short numeracy test.

You will be advised if you are required to sit either of the above tests, when you receive notification of your interview.

7. Referees
